Seeks Boyish Affinity Who Robbed Her

BLIND YOUTH FALLS FOUR STORIES IN SHAFT

Seeking Work as Piano Tuner
He Steps Through an Elevator Door.
BOTH LEGS BROKEN
AND HIPS DISLOCATED
He Is Stranger in Strange Land and in Dire Need of Employment.

Totally blind and a stranger in need, L. B. Ness, 24 years old and a piano tuner, living at 384 Wallworth street, Piedmont, now occupies a cot in Providence hospital with both legs broken and both hips dislocated, a victim of a fall from an elevator shaft from the fourth floor of the Eilers music company store shortly after noon today.

By accident he opened the door leading to the elevator shaft, and, losing his balance, plunged to the bottom, striking his feet downward on the floor of the cage and breaking through the tough boards which were splintered from the forceful impact.

Other occupants who witnessed the fall rushed below and picked up the crushed and bleeding form, rendering him all the assistance possible until the ambulance arrived to take him to the receiving hospital where temporary relief was administered. Later on, at the request of the company, he was removed to the Providence hospital where he is now resting easily.

SEEKING FOR WORK.
Ness, who is a graduate of the Wisconsin school for the blind, came to this city a few weeks ago and was unable to find work in his profession. Upon the recommendation of a friend in the employ of the Eilers company in the city he was referred to the Oakland branch and for the past two weeks he has visited the store daily in hopes of obtaining permanent employment.

Manager E. S. Johnson gave him several odd jobs, whenever possible and it was only yesterday that he went to work steadily for the firm. His work was upon the fourth floor, where he was engaged in tuning pianos. Not being familiar with the place he found some difficulty in getting around but his fellow workmen gave him every assistance possible. This morning when the others left he was asked if he would go with them, but he declined the offer, saying that he was not quite ready to leave and could find the way himself.

NO ONE TO BLAME.
Manager Johnson was greatly distressed over the accident although no blame could be attached to the employee. He was referred to the employees of the place, the elevator door being closed at the time.

"I took pity upon the man who seemed to be a thorough gentleman and said that he was up against it," he said, "and I took a personal liking to him. This is indeed, a sad accident."

After the fall, Ness retained his consciousness and the first thing he called for was his glasses which had disappeared. They were found later on in the basement and taken to him at the hospital. He was extremely careful of his appearance and the glasses covered to some extent the source of his affliction.

Taft Almost Runs Down Woman With His Auto

President Taft had two "almost" big accidents today, just escaping running down a woman near the White House and hitting a trolley car.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—President Taft left here at 9.10 a. m. for Chicago over the Pennsylvania road. He is due there at 8 o'clock tomorrow. From Chicago he will swing around the circle to Rochester, Albany, New York, New Haven and Providence and will not be in Washington again until March 23.

Shortly after leaving the White House the President had an exciting experience. The automobile, bearing him and his aide, Captain Butt, narrowly escaped running down a woman. The heavy car, running at good speed, was crossing Fourteenth street on New York avenue, when a woman darted in front of the machine. Instantly the chauffeur applied the brakes, bringing the machine to a sudden stop. The President, seeing the impending accident, was on his feet in an instant, shouting a warning. The car then continued on its way and narrowly missed hitting a trolley car.

BUSY TIME IN CHICAGO.
The President's visit to Chicago is primarily to attend the annual St. Patrick's Day banquet on the Fellowship Club of that city. He also will be the guest of that club at luncheon. From the moment of his arrival until he leaves Chicago at midnight tomorrow he has continuous engagements. He will ride with a military escort from a suburban station and visit the Traffic club; attend a conservation meeting in the afternoon; will be tendered a reception at the Hamilton club, and will wind up the day with the Fellowship club banquet.

Arriving at Rochester on Friday he will be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce that evening.

WILL BE GUEST OF HUGHES.
Saturday morning he will proceed to Albany where for two days he will

GRANDMOTHER OF 50 RUNS AWAY WITH YOUTH

Both Left Families and Now
He Disappears, Leaving
Her Stranded.
SHE THINKS HE FOUND
A YOUNGER AFFINITY
Charges He Took All Her Coin and Wants the Police to Find Him.

With a blush of shame spreading itself across her countenance, her eyes downcast and her voice shaking while she related her story of how she had deserted her husband and family in their home at Louisville, Kentucky, and fled to this coast with a man 26 years her junior, Mrs. Fanny L. Moore, 50 years of age, a mother of five children and a grandmother of three, has asked the police to aid her in locating her erstwhile affinity and lover, Fred W. Walker, the father of two children who has finally left her and taken with him $1700 of her money.

As an aid in finding the man Mrs. Moore has told the police that she believes Walker has gone to join a more recent affinity, whom he met on the train between here and St. Louis. She explained that Walker had spent several hours in company with this other woman on the train during their trip, but that at the time she took no special notice of this fact because she believed in him and had no suspicion that he intended to desert her.

EMPLOYED BY HUSBAND.
According to the story of the woman, who now finds herself deserted by the man for whom she left her own home in Kentucky, Walker had been employed by her husband on the ranch at Louisville and during his work there had made it known to Mrs. Moore that he had found in her his ideal.

The mother and grandmother, who had lived happily and contentedly on the farm there, was won by the protestations of love made to her by Walker, and finally packed her trunks and fled with him, deserting her wife and two small children, company her. She says that she gave him $900 out of the $2100 she had with her to purchase their railroad tickets and pay the other expenses of the trip.

From Louisville the couple went to Russellville in Kentucky, but remained there only a few days. Then they went to Guthrie, in the same State, and from there fled to St. Louis. It was on the trip from St. Louis to Los Angeles, Mrs. Moore says, Walker met the woman whom she suspects of having made the second steal of his heart. She describes this woman as an attractive blonde.

SKIPS OUT WITH $800.
On reaching this city last Saturday Moore said that he had arranged for a home for them at Seventh and Center streets and ordered her trunk sent there. It has been since learned that he did not have his own suitcases delivered to this address.

On Monday morning Walker left the place with $800 of Mrs. Moore's money, explaining that he would put in the bank for safe keeping. He did not return that night and yesterday morning Mrs. Moore sought the aid of the police.

Although she says she is 50 years old, Mrs. Moore does not look over 40 and is considered exceptionally attractive for that age. She says that she and her husband have a family of five children in Kentucky, ranging from the ages of 13 to 28 years. The two oldest children have children of their own. She expresses a deep affection for these children and her husband, to whom she declares she will return if she can locate Walker and get from him the money he has taken from her.

She does not know that it will be possible for her to renew the old happy times on the Louisville farm or not, but will endeavor to go back there and make amends.

Up to this time the police have been unable to locate Walker or the woman whom he is believed to have sought.

STEAL BIRD OF PARADISE.
Two women entered the store conducted by Mrs. J. Able at 583 San Pablo avenue yesterday, according to the report of the proprietress to the police and while she was engaged in the rear part of the store made away with a black bird of paradise valued at $25.

A RAISE
IS NOW IN SESSION
No Need of Calling a Strike
Vote Is Their Understanding

Or a Strike Will Follow, So
Declare the United Mine Workers

CINCINNATI, March 16.—Only by advancing wages can the coal mine operators of the country avert a strike of union miners after April 1st, according to developments before the special convention of the United Mine Workers of North America here today.

The session lasted only 45 minutes, but in that time the leaders of the men intimated plainly that more must be paid to the 300,000 workmen involved or no new wage agreement would be signed.

WILL GIVE CONCESSIONS.
The miners are understood to be willing to give up their demands for Saturday half holidays, "run of mine," payments and the lesser points raised in the joint conference of the Central Competitive field last week.

On the advance in wages, however, they are firm.
For the first time today the miners' president openly acknowledged the gravity of the situation.

CARMEN GIVE UP HOPE OF ENDING THE STRIKE

Committee of Ten Resumes Its Efforts to Strengthen Position.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—Despite further progress toward a settlement of the street carmen's strike through conferences with Geo. H. Earle, one of the city's representatives on the board of directors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, the committee of ten today resumed its efforts to make the general strike more effective.

Carrying out the action taken by the State Federation of Labor at Newcastle last week, State President E. E. Greenwalt has sent out a call vote on a state wide strike.

MORE CARS ARE RUNNING.
There has been no disorder for several days and more cars are running today than at any time since the strike began.

The company has announced that men with good records may return and although they will be permitted to retain union membership, they will not be allowed to wear the big buttons which marked the union men before the present strike.

President Mahon has gone to his home in Detroit, but is expected to return to this city on Friday.

Dangles by Eyebrow From Swivel Crane

Bridge Worker Has Narrow Escape from Fearful Death at Potrero.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Carried aloft hanging hooked to a crane, H. Trimmer, an employee of the Thomson Bridge Company, with rare presence of mind, saved himself from falling into the bay in the Potrero this morning.

Trimmer had been working on a barge and the hook was lowered to him. In some manner the sharp point caught him above the eyebrow, and before he could release himself he was pulled upward. Although suffering great pain, he succeeded in clinging on and landing safely on the shore. He was taken to the Potrero hospital, where his injury, consisting of a deep lacerated wound, was treated by Dr. Egeberg.

TOOK AFFINITY AWAY WITH STOLEN AUTO

Sensational Details Follow the Recovery of Machine by W. B. Taylor.

CLUBMAN AND SCION
THOUGHT TO BE IN PARIS

Woman, Fearing Arrest, Tells Portland Police All About the Escape.

A sensation which involves a runaway ride to Portland in which William Gray Richardson, clubman, bon vivant and scion of a wealthy and highly respected family of this city, and a fascinating blonde, who, it is asserted, hails from the local tenderloin, figure as the fugitives, has developed in the recovery of W. B. Taylor's big automobile which was stolen from in front of the Athenian Club on Fourteenth street while the owner was at lunch some two months ago.

The fact that the car could have been made away with on one of the city's principal thoroughfares in the middle of the day occasioned considerable surprised comment at the time, and $100 was offered for its recovery by Taylor. Detectives were detailed on the case with the result that the missing machine was finally traced to Portland, Oregon, where the woman in the case, picked at an unceremonious desertion by her cavalier soon after their arrival at that place together, gladly handed over all the facts to the police with the result that they prepared a warrant for young Richardson's arrest, only to find him missing.

MAN DISAPPEARS.
Since then all efforts to establish his whereabouts have proved unavailing, and members of his immediate family, prostrated over the scandal involved, assert that he may be either in the East or in Paris. Taylor was notified of the recovery of his machine in Portland only recently and after a trip to that city for the purpose of identification and establishment of ownership, returned with it to Oakland a few days ago.

The deliberation with which Richardson acted in carrying out the details of the theft was illustrated in the fact that after reaching Oregon he

INSURGENT FIGHT, A SIMPLE FANTASY; BALLINGER AVERS

ST. PAUL, March 16.—"The insurgent movement is something like a fantasy and the Ballinger-Pinchot hearing is of less importance in the East than the West."
Secretary Ballinger, who is here to address the Minnesota convention Congress, thus expressed himself today.

"When you are riding on the plains, a cow on the horizon looks forty feet high, but when you come up to it, it's only an ordinary cow," he said.

As to the Glavis charges Mr. Ballinger said:

"So far nothing has been brought to light but suspicion, innuendo and insinuations. Therefore I will dispel as soon as my evidence is in."

Strength and Vigor Restored

MRS. R. A. PERLIE.

Marvelous Cure Effected—Doctor Perlie of the U. S. Navy Prescribed Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for His Mother and it Restored Her to Health.

"Two years ago I had peritonitis and after recovery I had indigestion of the worst form. I tried all kinds of medicines and tonics that did me no good. I was so weak that I staggered while walking the streets. My son, Dr. Perlie, of the U. S. navy, ordered me to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I took one bottle but as other physicians discouraged me I gave it up. After a while I again concluded to try the whiskey and used four bottles. It cured my indigestion, my strength and physical vigor were restored and I am now in perfect health. I can safely recommend the whiskey as a certain specific for indigestion and its attendant ills."—Mrs. R. A. Perlie, 1512 Pacific avenue, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

has to its credit fifty years of public service. It is the result of years of careful work and is an absolutely pure distillation of carefully malted grain. Overworked men, delicate women and sickly children will find in Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey the health and strengthening parts that are so necessary to them. It is a wonderful remedy in the prevention and cure of consumption, pneumonia, grippe, bronchitis, coughs, colds, asthma, malaria, low fevers, stomach troubles and all wasting and weakening conditions, if taken as directed.

If in need of advice, write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, New York, stating your case fully. Our doctors will send you advice free, together with a valuable illustrated booklet containing rare common sense rules for health, which you cannot afford to be without and some of the many thousands of gratifying letters from men and women in all walks of life, both old and young, who have been cured and benefited by the use of this great medicine and who continue to enjoy good health. Sold by druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1.00 for a large bottle.

PRIOR BAD RECORD BARS PROBATION

Eugene C. Dower Is Confronted With Having Served a Jail Sentence.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—After promising to reform on two previous occasions, and having caused his father and mother endless grief, the former being forced to pay a considerable sum to square his account, Eugene C. Dower appeared for the third time before the bar of justice this morning charged with a penal offense. He is accused of passing a fictitious check on January 25, drawn on the Mission bank and made out in favor of R. Dini for $19.35, and an appeal was made to Judge Cabanis to today to release him on probation.

The application for release was accompanied by the plans of the mother, Mrs. Carrie Dower, who took the stand in her son's behalf.

PREVIOUS RECORD. An examination of the defendant's record, however, disclosed the fact that while he is scarce twenty, he served a term of six months in the county jail for a felonious assault, and later was released on probation after his father had paid the face value of three fictitious checks which he passed. Judge Cabanis this morning stated that he could not see fit to exercise his leniency again upon the youthful prisoner, and accordingly sentenced him to one year in San Quentin penitentiary.

For burglarizing the residence of Mrs. Walton in broad daylight, Joe Martinez was sentenced to five years in San Quentin penitentiary by Superior Judge Dunn today. The accused stole a large quantity of silverware.

E. E. Decker Accepts Responsible Position. ALAMEDA, March 16.—Elmer E. Decker, who has been in the employ of Hammond & Hammond, real estate dealers, has accepted a responsible position with the W. P. Fuller Company and will assume his new duties as a department manager of the Fuller Company today.

$18,000 TAKEN FROM HIM IN CROOKED MATCH

Witness Testifies the Maybray Gang Relieved Him of a Large Sum.

THREE OAKLAND MEN MAY BE TAKEN TO IOWA

Large Number of Women at Trial One of Features of the Proceedings.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., March 16.—The first witness at the trial of John C. Maybray and his associates today was T. E. George of San Antonio, Texas, who said he was relieved of $18,000 in connection with a wrestling match at New Orleans two years ago, in which one of the contestants apparently suffered a serious hemorrhage in the second bout. He named Jos E. Wright, now under indictment but not yet arrested, as the "friend" who induced him to participate in the affair. Letters which led Mr. George into the trial were produced in evidence. Howard Simpson, the star witness of yesterday, said today that in the event of Harriman, Moore and Brown, now in jail in Oakland, California, being brought here for trial he would doubtless be a witness against them. Simpson appears to be friendly with Maybray. He has spent some time with the latter at the jail and his testimony has not materially affected Maybray's interest.

The large attendance of women at the trial has been a feature.

Harriman, Moore and Brown, who are in the Alameda county jail, disclaimed all knowledge of the charges against the Maybray gang and asserted they had no knowledge of any intention to take them to Council Bluffs for trial on the swindling charge.

changed the road number and numerals on the engine of the stolen car, to correspond with the register of the northern state, afterwards disposing of it to a Portland garage for a small sum on the plea that he was in need of ready cash. The automobile is valued by Taylor at $3500.

THE MISSING MAN IS WELL KNOWN both in this city and across the bay. A member of several prominent clubs, his standing has heretofore been unimpeached. The woman in the case, convicted by the fear of arrest, gave frankly the details of the trip, stating that she had accompanied Richardson to San Francisco in the car, and that it had been stolen, and had later sailed with him for Portland.

He shipped the machine to the north on the same steamer on which he took passage for himself and his fiancée, according to details gleaned since, and used it for several days after his arrival, before disposing of it to the garage where it was finally recovered.

Richardson has a wife in this city, but though there are rumors of a separation soon to be aired in the divorce courts, she has as yet made no statement regarding her husband's escapade, and the same silent attitude is preserved by other members of the family.

Wants Independence For the Philippines

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A petition praying for the independence of the Philippine Islands was presented to the Senate today by Senator Crane.

It is signed by 100 prominent citizens of the United States, headed by Alton B. Parker of New York. The signatures include twenty prominent educators, among them David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford University.

The petition was referred to the committee on the Philippines, where it will sleep peacefully with a large number of other petitions filed with the same object, but signed by less conspicuous personages.

Assets of Defunct Bank Worth $4,149,664

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Receiver Edward Le Breton, of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, filed his annual report today and explained the condition of the defunct bank. Le Breton estimates that the institution's assets are worth $4,149,664.55 and declares that the depositors should receive 41 cents on the dollar should a final distribution be made. The trust funds he found in good condition and provided certain contingencies do not arise. In his report made last year Le Breton could only see a ten per cent return in sight for the depositors.

SOCIETY TO REPORT BATTLE AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS

Alameda County Association Arrayed Against the White Plague, in Discussion.

WOULD OBVIATE DANGER IN LOCAL POSTOFFICE

Germ of Many Cities Brought to Oakland on Mail Sacks.

The first annual meeting of the Alameda County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which will be held in Chabot Observatory Friday evening, March 18, will afford an excellent opportunity for people interested in the campaign against consumption to observe the effects of combined energy in a cause of this kind.

One of the most interesting and important reports will be that of the Alameda Hospital Committee, of which Dr. E. A. Majors is chairman. The conditions as they existed in this institution a year ago and as they now are will materially help to show the practical side of the society's workings. The Board of Supervisors have unofficially pledged themselves to commence immediate construction of four-room cottages for indigent tuberculosis patients and improvements thus begun will mean that within a few weeks there will be radical changes that shall place Alameda county well to the front in taking active hold in the new national movement against consumption. The valuable assistance given by the press to the society's doings has resulted in complaints of dangerous cases of tuberculosis being made daily to the society officers and a number of cases have been attended to with benefit to innocent adults and children who might otherwise have contracted the disease.

REPORT ON SCHOOLS.

Doctors Florence M. Sylvester and A. A. Alexander will report in the matter of public school education and hygiene. Dr. Sylvester having been specially detailed to procure the installation of open-air schools for children inclined to pulmonary weakness or suffering from other physical handicaps.

The report of Treasurer George P. Baxter will show total funds of approximately $6300, the entire amount of which will be used in clinical and educational work. A directorate for active work, consisting of thirty members, will be elected, after which a directors' meeting will be held for the purpose of electing the society's officers and an executive committee. The meeting will be open to any persons who may be interested in the "War on Consumption," and suggestions for feasible campaigns along special lines will be warmly welcomed. During the evening Mr. Eugene Roland, a well-known local vocalist, will sing, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Robert Herndon.

Among some of the most important matters now being handled by the society is the alleviation of dangers in the local postoffice from the accumulation of germ-infected dust which is brought into the building through the medium of mail sacks—a fruitful disease carrier, collecting, as they do, the dirt from railroad platforms throughout the entire country. Immediately after the evening election the society will enter upon the different lines demanded by the society's work will be appointed and the campaign in Alameda county will become as effective in time as that accomplished by the association in Boston, where in twenty years the death rate from consumption has been cut in half.

On Monday he will attend a meeting at the Yale corporation, proceeding that afternoon to Providence. From Providence the President proceeds to New York, arriving there the morning of the 22nd to spend the entire day. He will be entertained at the New York Press club in the afternoon and in the evening will attend a banquet of the American Peace and Arbitration society.

Washburn Bill Is Favorably Reported

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The Washburn amendment to the administration railroad bill providing that the interstate commerce commission shall supervise the issuance of stock and bonds and fix the price at which they shall be offered for sale, instead of a flat provision in the bill restricting the price to the par value, was adopted today by the house committee on interstate commerce.

Millionaire Packer Appears to Plead

NEW YORK, March 16.—Another of the indicted officials of Chicago meat packers, Lermuel Patterson, vice-president of the National Packer company, voluntarily in the New Jersey Court of Common Pleas in Jersey City today and entered a plea of not guilty to the indictment charging conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Patterson was fixed at $7500 which was furnished.

Burglars made a rich haul in whisky, beer and claret last night when they entered the place of Odette Lamarre at 473 Fourth street, and made away with several bottles of the intoxicants, together with two pearl rings, a silver napkin ring and an alarm clock. It is believed that the men entered the place through the front door by the use of a skeleton key.

SCHOOL BONDS TO BE HELD WITHIN $2,000,000

Mayor and Park Commission Want a Million for Increase of Park Area.

PURCHASE TO BE MADE OF DIAMOND CANYON

Many Betterments Projected to Beautify Present Acreage.

That the school and park bond issue should not exceed $2,000,000 is the belief of Mayor Mott and the park commissioners, and pursuant to this idea the school department will be requested to curtail its estimate down to $2,000,000, in order that $1,000,000 shall be voted on for the improvement and the enlargement of the park areas in the city. This recommendation will be presented to the city council, and in all probability that body will reduce the demands of the school department and include the park commissioners' request for $1,000,000 in the bond issue.

The plans included in the complete schedule of the park commission are many and varied, all tending to the enlarging and improving of the property now available for park purposes. The present park acreage approximately 165 acres, and it is the intention to double this area. It is desired that $100,000 be used in the construction of a suitable pavilion and boat house on Lake Merritt, and it is also contemplated to build a band stand on the property recently derived from the Adams heirs for park purposes, at the head of the lake.

MOSSWOOD PARK. Mosswood Park, containing eleven acres of perhaps the most beautiful park property in the county, is to be purchased by the city. This property has been held in trust by the banks of the city for the municipality and, with interest, will cost approximately $100,000.

Diamond Canyon in the recently annexed district is another heavy spot of the city which is to be improved by the park commission. This canyon is undoubtedly the most naturally beautiful section for park purposes in the neighborhood, and it is intended that it be improved in a manner which will more brilliantly set forth its natural advantages.

SMALLER AREAS.

Among the smaller properties to be purchased and improved, according to the present plans of the park commission, are the completion of the Fifty-ninth street frontage of Bushrod park; prop-

CHICAGO TO CAST NEW RECORD VOTE

Registration Promoted by the Local Option Campaign Is Heavy.

CHICAGO, March 16.—An unprecedented registration of 115,355 yesterday raised the number of Chicago voters to a total that assured a new record, estimated by election board officials as close to 440,000 after revision. The highest number of voters ever on the city polling lists until this year was 408,431 in 1908, a presidential year.

The new figures give statisticians a basis on which to estimate a heavy increase in Chicago's population. Politicians, however, agreed that the exceptional spring registration, which eclipsed the highest previous total by more than $5,000, was due to the struggle over the saloons.

240 HANDBOOKS AND ARMY OF GAMBLERS 'PINCHED' IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, March 16.—Two hundred and forty one handbooks were seized and twelve hundred persons were arrested by the Chicago police gambling squad in the last six months, according to figures gathered yesterday by Chief of Police Steward. The police also confiscated several hundred telephones and racing sheets.

Chief Steward estimates that ninety percent of the handbook keepers arrested were given fines averaging about $25.00 each.

Raid Is Made on The Chinese Fishers

ALAMEDA, March 16.—State Lottery Game Commissioner J. E. Pedin and E. W. McMillan made an early morning raid today on Chinese fishermen and arrested nine Orientals with about three tons of undersized fish in their possession.

The preliminary examination of the charge of violating the State game law which is a high misdemeanor will be held Tuesday before Judge Johnson. The fishermen were casting their nets in San Leandro bay when arrested.

“There’s a Reason”

Our second fusillade into a flock brought down eight geese, and you can imagine when they dropped there was an excited band of huntmen running in all directions to pick them up. Every goose that was killed was used as a decoy, Hansen taking a little stick and propping up its head so that it would look like a goose feeding. At noon we were taken back to the house for a warm luncheon, and at 2 o'clock we returned to the hunting fields. We hunted until 5:30 in the afternoon and on the roundup we found that we had sixty-two geese to our credit. That night when we went home we left the field in condition for the morning hunt except the live boosters, which were taken to the ranch for food. All the game we shot we left as boosters. So when we started to hunt in the morning we had sixty-two dead geese all propped up in the field, thirty-eight live geese and the fifty decoys. I can assure you that this made a very formidable showing. At night we talked goose

I am sure that the members of our party will never forget the delights of goose hunting, as experienced on this trip. My advice to busy men is to get near to nature, and enjoy the sports of the field, for in them he can experience some of the joys of living.

The floor will be under the direction of W. H. Findley, junior past grand; W. Fitzgerald, noble grand; and A. L. Doby, vice grand of Orion Lodge.

England-Portugal Row Is Imminent

LONDON, March 16. — The Daily News announces that a serious conflict between Portuguese and the British officials engaged in delimitating the frontier has occurred at Tete, a town on the southern bank of the Zambezi river, in Portuguese East Africa, and that as a result lively notes are now being exchanged between the governments of Portugal and Great Britain.

NILE CLUB TO CELEBRATE IN AULD KILLARNEY STYLE

Will Hold "Jinks Extraordinary," and Turn the Nile Into an Emerald Isle for One Big Night of Irish Joy, Jokes and General Jollity.

Somebody looked at Dave McLaughlin and said, "Let's have a jinks on St. Patrick's Day—we have everything needed to make it a success."

And so the members were notified that an Emerald Isle.

Upon the Nile,
Was found by Capt. Wells' crew;
'Twas full of bile,
For a little while,
Until Cap's good crew got through.

And then a flop,
From bile to hop,
And the dreams of pipes came true;
The tale did smile,
In auld sod style,
When Cap's good crew got through.

Right down the line,
They made her shine;
They fixed her up like new—
And tomorrow night,
You'll have the right,
To see what Cap's good crew—did do—toot, too.

And now they're off!
Tomorrow night good St. Patrick will look down upon the auld sod and hear in his honor a program such as is never heard outside the sacred portals of an exclusive club of staid and serious men of affairs. It is a program teeming with surprises, bubbling and overflowing with the wit of the Irish, the songs of the day—and century—and the jokes of years ago.

Among those who expect to be favored with presents are:

Ed M. Lavin, who will start an Irish evening with a Dago monologue.

William Schwartz will follow with a song, or something else, in Irish as it is taught in Germany.

W. H. Perry has a stunt that he refuses to divulge. He says he prefers to get it all at once and will positively succeed.

J. C. Parley, a real chip of the auld sod, will try to be natural for a few moments and tell some stories.

Carl Anderson and Henry Perry have promised to sing.

The hitherto undiscovered Nile Glee Club will stand a bombardment, and a rattling good program will be brought to a great finish by that prince of entertainers, David Michael McLaughlin, who will extend a few confidential remarks to the members present.

The show is being arranged by A. B. Weeks, Geo. Levenson and G. C. Barnhart, who are exerting strenuous efforts to relieve all past performances. It will take place tomorrow night, and judging by the interest shown, will be a great success.

Daughter of Late Senator Fair Domiciled at the Fairmont

MRS. WILLIAM K. VANDERBILT JR.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16. — For the first time since the fire, nearly four years ago, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., who was formerly Miss Virginia Fair of San Francisco, arrived in her private car, "Nagaret" late yesterday afternoon from New York. She was accompanied by her two daughters, Muriel and Consuelo, and two maids and a governess.

The party was met upon their arrival at the pier by two carriages, which drove them to the great white hotel on the hill, an undivided half interest in which Mrs. Vanderbilt owns and where the most elegant suite had been previously engaged for her.

NOT SEEKING DIVORCE.

Rumor had preceded her to the effect that she had come west to establish a residence with the intention of securing a divorce from her husband, with whom she has not lived for some time. She occupied the family home on Fifth avenue and he lives at the Brook Club while in the city, although he spent much of the time in travel. Mrs. Vanderbilt emphatically denied that she had any intentions of divorce but had simply come west for a visit and a rest. She expects to erect a building on her property in Montgomery street adjoining the Mills building and New York architects have prepared plans for the same.

Since her marriage about twelve years ago, the heiress to the Fair fortune has visited San Francisco but three times. The first two she was accompanied by her husband, the donor of the famous Vanderbilt Cup, and left her children in New York. She stated that a nurse girl could watch the children but she could not look after her husband. This time she leaves the husband and brings the children. The two-year-old son she left in New York.

NOT A SUFFRAGIST.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, her mother-in-law, has sought to bring about a reconciliation, but without result. She has also endeavored to interest "Mrs. Willis" in the suffrage movement but without success.

While in San Francisco, the second daughter of the Fairs will be lavishly entertained by her friends in her native city. She is particularly intimate with Mrs. William Crocker and Mrs. Peter Martin, while Miss Eleanor Sears, now visiting in Burlingame is said to be engaged to one of the younger Vanderbilts.

Mrs. Vanderbilt has a big fortune in

Court Places Woman On 8-Year Probation

Anna Felsagel, wife and ally of Henry L. Lewis, who burglarized the Oakland residence of Dr. James Perdon and was recently committed to the penitentiary at Folsom for a term of twelve years for the crime, was admitted to probation yesterday in the criminal department of the Superior Court by Judge Brown, for a period of eight years.

The woman's defense was that her participation in the crime was due to Lewis' influence and domination over her. On the witness stand she tried to protect her husband by giving false testimony.

PERSONAL MENTION

Ladies' Suits

A strictly hand-tailored suit is a work of art. It requires cleverness and skill of the highest order.

That our designers and tailors have that ability to a marked degree cannot be questioned.

The Spring Suits which have just come from their hands are noticeable for their original style and tone of quiet refinement, and as every express shipment brings something new, you can imagine the large assortment we are showing.

Regarding values, we urge you to come and judge for yourself. We wish you would take particular notice of the suits at $25.

They are the best values we have ever had in our store at that price.

$25

Exceptional Values Popular Priced Millinery

Our Spring Millinery now on display is not only original and distinctive in style but also very moderately priced.

It is our practice to employ high-class designers but we do not consider that as an excuse for pricing our hats excessively. We believe that exclusive, stylish hats sold at a moderate profit is the way to build a large, permanent business.

POWER COMPANY'S CONDUITS ARE APPROVED

Board of Works Passes Plans of the New Oakland Corporation.

CONTRACT NOT LET FOR PRINTING BONDS

Foothill Boulevard to Remain
Open for Heavy Traffic
Despite Protest.

That the new Central Oakland Light and Power Company is loomed up as a formidable competitor to the other public service corporations dealing in light, power and heat on this side of the bay, was given additional affirmation this morning, when another batch of the company's extensive plans to honeycomb the city with electric conduits was approved by the Board of Public Works. The seal of official approval was placed upon the company's petition for permission to excavate and lay light and power conduits in Foothill street, between Broadway and Clay streets; in Tenth street, between Broadway and Clay streets; in Twelfth street, between Broadway and Clay streets; in Twelfth street, between Broadway and Clay streets; also in Twelfth street, from Broadway to Alice streets; and in San Pablo avenue, from Fourteenth street to Twelfth street. Work on the excavations will be commenced March 18.

DISCUSS BIDS.

The board devoted a greater portion of its time this morning to a discussion of the bids submitted for the printing, engraving and furnishing of the 1910 harbor bonds. Representatives of all the bidding companies were present, and each expounded the virtues of his own proposal, but the commissioners arrived at no decision and postponed the announcement of the award until a special meeting, which will be held later in the week. A. Carlisle & Co., are the lowest bidders, their figure being $340. The other bidders are the American Bank Note Company, $554.49; the Oakland Lithographic Company, $560; and the Western Bank Note Co., Company, $560. It is probable that the bid will be awarded to Carlisle.

A resolution was adopted requesting the City Council to pass an ordinance ordering all the electric wires on Twenty-fourth street, between Webster street and Harrison boulevard, placed under ground. The street department is about to commence paving the street with asphalt at the point named.

The system drainage installed by Contractor John Geary in Broadway between Piedmont avenue and Twelfth street, was accepted by the commissioners this morning. The contractor for installing the system was $202,170.

BOARD OBJECTS.

A proposed ordinance, which was submitted for the approval of the board by the superintendent of streets, providing that the portion of the Foothill boulevard between High street and San Leandro be declared officially a boulevard and closed to all heavy traffic, did not meet with the favor of the commissioners, who were inclined to hold that heavy hauling was necessary in the suburbs and that it would not be fair to prohibit it on the best road in the county. The ordinance was referred for further consideration to the committee of the whole.

A request submitted by the Mothers' Club of the Leland school for permission to place banners announcing the need for a new school across the streets in the vicinity of the present building was denied, in accordance with a city ordinance prohibiting the placing of banners over the public streets.

Burglar Makes Escape After Tussle in Dark

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15. — A sharp tussle with a burglar, which would undoubtedly have led to the capture of the culprit had the latter not succeeded at length in getting hold of his revolver, occurred in the hallway at the home of N. H. Billett, 2637 Market street, early this morning.

Billett, who is proprietor of a confectionary store near his residence, was awakened by some one moving about outside his room, and without taking time to arm himself he rushed into the dark hallway, and engaged in a man endeavoring to escape down the stairs. The two locked in an embrace, and Billett was overcoming his antagonist when the latter clutched his gun and pointing it at the heart of his victim threatened to shoot.

CURRY WILL NOT BE DRIVEN OUT OF FIGHT J. Cal Ewing Declares That Secretary of State Will Be True to His Friends to the Last

Secretary of State Charles F. Curry has opened headquarters for his campaign in Alameda county at 1116 Broadway, rooms 37 and 38. Manager J. Cal Ewing and Harry Anderson stated yesterday that the Curry men in Alameda county were making excellent progress throughout the county, in reference to securing names. Petitions for Curry are now being circulated in every town and hamlet in the county and already Curry has more names to his petition than any other candidate. It is Curry's intention to keep his headquarters open here day and night until the primary election is held.

LEAVITT TO GO BACK.

Regarding politics in Alameda county the Examiner this morning makes this statement: The organization is specially desirous of returning Frank Leavitt to the State Senate, and the racing interests will also back Leavitt's return. The Mot and league forces have not entirely fixed upon their candidate against Leavitt, though Mayor Mott's secretary, Edward J. Terrell, is still in the lead for their support. Some of the older leaguers think he is too young for the place, but they admit he is a good mixer.

The organization seems about ready to back Assemblyman Hans of Fruitvale against Assemblyman Frank Ods of Alameda for the Senatorship in the Fourteenth district, which takes in Alameda and Brooklyn townships. Ods is the league candidate, as he was one of the authors of the Walker-Ods anti-pool selling bill of the last session. Hans, on the other hand, generally "takes programs" like a little man.

CURRY WILL STICK.

The Examiner this morning expresses the opinion that when the proper time comes Curry will drop out of the race in favor of Alden Anderson. J. Cal Ewing, one of Curry's managers, was spoken to about the matter and remarked that the statement was a libel on Curry both as a man and as a friend. Ewing stated that Curry told his friends that he is in the fight to stay.

"Curry will not get out of the fight for anybody," said Ewing. "He is there to stay to the finish and I defy any man or set of men to chase him out. Regarding the Examiner's statement I would say it is all rubbish as far as Curry is concerned."

RESENT IMPUTATION.

The organization leaders resent quite hotly the gossip imputation that they are untrue to the cause of Alden Anderson and are ready to turn for Charles Curry. A word has come right out of the center of the organization giving the program as follows:

The campaign for Anderson is to be made through the business men of the State and their organizations. This campaign is to be put on foot in a few days. Then, too, the word is to go out and the screws are to be put on. Men who have been for Curry are to be told that they must line up for Anderson or be deserted by the organization. This refers to such workers as George Reed and County Clerk "Jack" Cook of Oakland.

On this there is a confident Herrin prediction that the Curry campaign will fail, and that the political horn of Anderson will be exalted. The work among the business men has already begun in San Francisco, and it is to be rapidly extended when the organization really extends to work. Meantime, a great bitterness is developing between the Curry and Anderson supporters.

PLEASED OVER CAPTURES.

The Curry followers are also short-lived in their captures they have made, in the ranks of Stanton and Johnson. In Stanton's territory they have made a furious onslaught in San Diego. There John D. Spreckels has espoused Curry's cause, just as Adolph B. Spreckels has taken it up in this city.

John D. is a power in San Diego, where he owns a newspaper among other things, and the paper is stoutly supporting Curry's candidacy. It is also told that the Spreckels' employees are numerous signing the Curry petitions.

WEEP OVER SHANNON.

There is some weeping because the league did not endorse Billy Shannon for State Printer instead of Friend W. Richardson of Berkeley. It seems that Warren Shannon, Billy's brother, saved the day for the league in the San Francisco county committee, and that Billy refused to punish him. Now, however, the usual talk of ingratitude, and Daniel Ryan has served notice on the league that he is for Shannon anyhow.

Charles C. Carpenter, sergeant-at-arms of the Board of Supervisors, announces that he is a candidate for assemblyman from the Forty-eighth District. This district is now represented by James T. Peesley and prior to his incumbency Attorney Phil M. Walsh represented it for two terms, succeeding Joseph M. Kelley, now a member of the Board of Supervisors who held the place for two terms. Carpenter has resided in his district practically his entire life and has a large number of friends and supporters therein.

Gillett Pardons Man Once Doomed to Die

Slayer's Sentence Is Commuted
Three Times—Finally Freed for Good Behavior.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—At the suggestion of the prison board and in connection with the policy of the office, Governor Gillett today pardoned Enrico Morasco, whose sentence has been commuted from hanging to life sentence, from life sentence to parole, and from parole to pardon. Morasco is now a free man and at liberty to continue his work at Vacaville.

Morasco was sent to San Quentin from Solano county May 27, 1894, to be hanged August 12, but because of extenuating circumstances attendant upon the commission of the crime, Governor Budd commuted the sentence to life imprisonment. Morasco was paroled in January, 1903. In the two years since that time he has "made good," hence the pardon.

Kidnaped Girl Writes a Postal

Missing San Diego Beauty Has Been Traced to Los Angeles
by the Police.

SAN DIEGO, March 15. — Cora Frazer, aged sixteen years, who it is alleged was abducted from the Children's Home in this city several days ago, is believed to be in Los Angeles.

A postal card was received today by a National City youth from the missing girl and the police of Los Angeles have been asked to find her.

Encinal Camp to Hold Whist Tournery Monday

ALAMEDA, March 15.—Encinal Camp, Woodmen of the World, will hold a whist party at the quarters of the Alameda Improvement Club on Webster street Monday evening. Beautiful hand-painted china prizes will be awarded.

Aeronautic Fleet Will Be Discussed

NEW YORK, March 15. — The question of the advisability of providing national defense with the chief topic of discussion at the annual banquet of the Aero Club of America on March 24. An effort is being made to secure the attendance of President Taft, the Secretary of War and Major General Leonard Wood.

DESPERATE THIEF STEALS BUGGY TO CROSS THE BORDER

SAN DIEGO, Mar. 16.—Jumping into a buggy in front of a grocery store on National avenue, Edward King, well-known to the police, made a desperate effort to escape across the border line into Mexico. When caught, after a long chase by a mob on a bicycle, and a mounted policeman, he declared that his only reason for stealing the horse and buggy was an intense desire to get out of the United States.

Standard Oil Case In Hands of Court

Closing Arguments Are Made in Attempt to Dissolve the Accused Trust.

WASHINGTON, March 15. — Closing arguments in the great contest over the dissolution of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, are being made today in the Supreme Court of the United States. They will close at 4 p. m. How long the court will take to consider the case no one promises to know, but many believe the decision will not be announced before May 1st.

Three eminent lawyers have been preparing for weeks for this day. D. T. Watson, of Pittsburgh, and John G. Johnson, of Philadelphia, have been making ready for the Standard Oil's battle on the final day. Attorney General Wickham has been delving into the intricacies of the case with a view of making the final argument for the government.

Daughter of Stubbs Gets Her Divorce

Mrs. Sunderland Gets the Bulk of Real Estate and $75 a Month Alimony.

RENO, March 15.—Beniah Stubbs Sunderland, daughter of J. C. Stubbs, general traffic manager for the Marietta lines, with offices at Chicago, was granted a decree of divorce here today on grounds of cruelty. The case was heard behind closed doors and was not contested by the defendant, John Sunderland. Property receipts were settled out of court, Mrs. Sunderland getting the bulk of valuable real estate in this city and $75 a month alimony.

Wife Faints During Divorce Hearing

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15. — Mrs. Nellie Lovett, whose divorce suit is under hearing before Superior Judge Graham, fainted for the second time this afternoon just before her case was called.

She was removed to the court chambers, where a physician was called to attend her, after which she was transferred to her home.

Laundry Collector Faces Felony Trial

Charles Niver, the 20-year-old boy charged with collecting sums due the Contra Costa Laundry Company, and who was traced to the Los Angeles jail where he was held as a vagrant, through a letter he had written to a friend here asking if the police knew of his whereabouts, was yesterday brought back and appeared in the police court this morning to face the charge of felony embezzlement. His case was set for March 15th for arraignment.

It is stated by an employee of the laundry company that Niver's father, who owned some stock in the concern, had appropriated collections to his own use in a like manner some time ago.

Trial of Dr. Moore Goes Over Two Weeks

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Upon declaration of his attorneys that they desired to summon witnesses from Washington, D. C., the preliminary hearing today before Federal Commissioner R. A. Truoged Dr. Moore, the surgeon of the local United States Marine Hospital, who is charged with battery upon Mate Brezina, a patient, went over for two weeks.

Breach in Family Healed at Grave Of John M. Kelly

JOHN M. KELLY, whose death reconciled wife and family.

With the death of John Michael Kelly of the class of 1905, University of California, came to light the tale of a student's love and subsequent marriage to an actress against the wishes of his parents, the breach only being healed at the grave of the departed husband following the funeral in this city Monday afternoon.

Kelly, the son of the late Captain John Michael Kelly, Sr., a millionaire of Los Angeles, died Saturday in San Francisco, where he had been living with his wife in a flat on Fell street. He left all his property and possessions of his wife, who was formerly Miss Olive Egan.

There were rumors about that there would be a contest over the estate of the young man, who was worth between $150,000 and $200,000, but since the reconciliation Monday it is stated that there will be none.

FATHER LEAVES ESTATE.

When the senior Kelly died he left his estate in trust for his children, the daughter, considered to be the most beautiful girl in Southern California, to receive her share upon reaching her majority. But the son was to receive his share in installments, the first at the age of 21, the second at 25 and the last installment at the age of 30 years. He had but recently received the second amount which is believed to have been about $100,000.

The younger Kelly was a lavish spender and bedecked his wife with jewels valued at $45,000. It is not believed that much of the $100,000 had been spent and whatever the condition of the estate, there will be no contest.

Bohemian Clubmen Are Held for Trial

Accused of Obtaining $9000 Under False Pretenses from William Ford.

Charles Grimwood and Walter J. Wray, members of the exclusive Bohemian Club of this city and proprietors and promoters of the Pacific Pigment Company of Emeryville, who were arrested some time ago on the representations of William Ford, a contractor and also a Bohemian Club member, were held to answer to the higher courts this morning by Police Judge Deary.

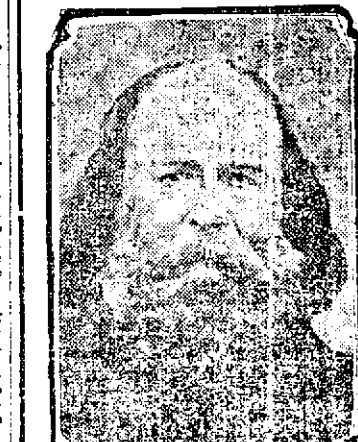

Grimwood and Wray were arrested at the instigation of Ford, who accused them of obtaining money under false pretenses. They had represented to Ford, he claimed, that the profits of the pigment company were valuable, and induced him to part with $9000 for stock in the concern. Ford alleges he discovered that the company never operated its plant when he paid investors $9000 each, and that the profits were less than the expenses.

ANY INFORMATION ABOUT HARRY CLARK, VERY MUCH DESIRED

Information regarding the whereabouts of Harry Clark, formerly of Cheyenne, is very much desired. Any person who can give his present address or tell how he can be located are asked to communicate with R. Evans at the Masonic Temple, corner of Twelfth and Washington streets, Oakland. They can also reach Mr. Evans by the Sunset Telephone, Oakland 3604.

Come at once and be healed. 760 Sixteenth St., Oakland. Remember that Francis Schlatter only can be seen now at 760 Sixteenth St., Oakland, from 8 a. m. till 7 p. m. daily, including Sundays.

ESTATE CLAIMANT HIDES IDENTITY Declares He Does Not Want Imposter to Get His Heritage.

BOSTON, March 15.—A mysterious letter received by Acting Chief of Police Drown of Melrose from San Francisco is the latest development in the contest which a Dickinson (N. D.) man, claiming to be Daniel Blake Russell, is conducting for a large share of the $750,000 estate of Daniel Russell.

The letter, which is addressed to the Chief of Police of Melrose, Mass., follows: "I am writing for and at the request of Daniel Blake Russell, who is living here. He has been a resident here for a number of years. His father was Daniel Russell, who lived in the State Senate of Massachusetts and who resided in the southwestern part of Melrose."

"Mr. Russell does not care anything about the money that was left him by his father, but that he does not want any imposter to get it. A registered letter from William C. Russell is on its way, and I would suggest that you ascertain if he receives it and notify me accordingly."

The police refuse to divulge the address of the sender of the letter. The San Francisco police have been asked to investigate.

William C. Russell is the chief beneficiary under the will.

STUDEBAKERS NOW CONTROL THE E-M-F

Control of Concern Transferred to the Big Offices at South Bend.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 15.—The Studebaker interests of South Bend now control the E-M-F Automobile Company of Detroit and head the Studebaker Vehicle Company of New York. The statement made by J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York that the Morgan company acted only for the Studebakers in the automobile deals of last week is correct.

The foregoing statement was made by Frederick S. Fish, general counsel of the Studebaker Bros. Manufacturing Company, this afternoon.

"What does the deal mean for South Bend?" was asked.

"That can be judged for itself," said Fish. "All orders will go out from South Bend, although the E-M-F Company is incorporated under the laws of the state of Michigan. Business directly connected with the automobile sales will be transacted in Detroit."

Fish and Clement Studebaker Jr., returned today from New York, where they had been for several weeks in connection with the deal recently completed. As soon as the deal was definitely completed orders were sent to branch managers in the West, Northwest, South and Middle West to come to South Bend to meet the directors of the company. Plans and policies for the coming season were discussed and adopted.

The general statements made by the Associated Press were verified by Fish and Clement Studebaker. "The purchase price of the E-M-F stock was about six for one," said Fish. This is somewhat less than the price announced last week.

Chinese Must Move Alameda Laundries

ALAMEDA, March 15. — Two Chinese laundries, one at Lincoln avenue, near Market street, and the other on St. Charles street near Central avenue, will be notified to seek other locations, according to a ruling made by the City Council last night, authorizing City Attorney M. W. Simpson to abolish the two wash houses.

An ordinance adopted by the city in the year 1890, providing that no laundry should be maintained between Central and Lincoln avenues gives the city power in the matters of these two laundries, against which there has been general protest from property owners.

Councilman John Walker introduced the subject of the removal of the Chinese, and the matter was referred to City Attorney Simpson, who reported on the existing ordinance last night.

DISTURBS SERENITY OF COURT; JUST ESCAPES JAIL

George W. Klopp Objected to Statement of Wife, and Says So.

George W. Klopp, an insurance agent of Oakland, narrowly escaped being committed to the county jail this morning by Superior Judge Ellisworth for contempt of court. The trial of the divorce suit instituted against him by Jennie E. Klopp, the ground of extreme cruelty, had been in progress fifteen minutes when Klopp created a sensational scene which brought down upon his head the wrath of the jurist and carried him to the brink of prison.

Mrs. Klopp was the first witness to take the stand when the case was called and it was at the beginning of her testimony that her husband lost control of himself. She was telling the court how, when she complained of feeling ill, Klopp had expressed the wish that she would die, and how her husband had everlastingly pestered her for money from practically the very date of their wedding, that she felt a statement that made the trouble.

"One day Mr. Klopp asked me for $50," testified Mrs. Klopp, "and I refused to give it to him. This made him very angry and he told me that if I did not let him have the money he would blacken my character in the community."

WRATH RISES.

This statement is what caused Klopp to create the rumpus. Slamming his clenched fist down upon the table at which he sat with his lawyer, the insurance agent exclaimed loudly and excitedly:

"Why, Jennie! how can you make such a statement as that?" "Look here, sir," said Judge Ellisworth, severely, before the bailiff had a chance to call for order, "if you repeat any such demonstration as that I will send you to the county jail for contempt. I will not tolerate any such flagrant breach of court etiquette in this room and have a mind to imprison you for what you have done."

"Most humbly beg your pardon, Judge," said Klopp, pulling himself together. "I simply forgot myself."

"Your conduct will be overlooked this time," retorted the jurist, "but don't let it be repeated."

Mrs. Klopp was a wealthy widow when she married Klopp. According to her complaint their life together has been stormy throughout. Klopp has entered a counter-complaint for a divorce, alleging extreme cruelty and other charges against Mrs. Klopp.

Cruiser South Dakota Makes Ready to Sail

VALLEJO, March 15. — The cruiser South Dakota, which is under orders to proceed to Buenos Ayres with the Tennessee, now at the Bremerton Navy yard, was taken out of the new dry dock at Mare Island today and will be ready for sea on Friday. The ship will call at the island lighthouse Saturday and there await a wireless message from the Tennessee, which will leave Bremerton for San Francisco on Sunday. The Tennessee will not stop at San Francisco, the South Dakota being instructed to join her outside the bay.

The cruiser New Orleans will sail from the Mare Island Navy yard late this afternoon to relieve one of the cruisers now on the Alaskan station.

The Row in New York.

The political situation in New York is naturally giving the Republican party leaders, not only in that State, but in other sections of the country, grave concern. A Democratic victory in the Empire State this year would be a reverse that would seriously embarrass the administration, which is beset on one side by the insurgents and on the other by the reactionaries. Between those who hold that the President is not going far enough and those who contend that he is going too far, coupled with industrial unrest and the high cost of the necessities of life, Mr. Taft is in a position requiring diplomatic tact, firmness and a deal of sagacity.

Conditions in Ohio are far from satisfactory owing to factional differences in the party and the scandals unearthed by the investigation inaugurated by the Democratic Governor, Judson B. Harmon, who has made an able and popular executive. In that State as well as in New York the Republicans have been forced to clean house and wash their dirty linen at the opening of a campaign in which the dominant party is always at a disadvantage. A season of popular discontent always follows a Presidential election, and the first year of a new administration is invariably one of trial and stress, owing to patronage disputes and the griefs occasioned by disappointed ambitions. President Taft has encountered unusual obstacles in carrying out his policies because of the friction within his party and irreconcilable differences between the extremists on either side. On the one hand he is compelled to fight disorganization and on the other—as in New York—the force of circumstances has brought him under the necessity of opposing the State organization dominated by Timothy Woodruff, who is fighting Governor Hughes all along the line. The situation is delicate because of the danger of exerting too much Federal official power in controlling the domestic concerns of a State. Twice has the Republican party in New York met with great disaster because the Federal administration became arrayed in open hostility against the State party organization. Woodruff is standing for bad men and bad politics, but he is artfully protecting his position by pretending to champion the wholesome principle that the Federal power has no right to use coercion in the domestic concerns of a sovereign State. He claims to be opposing Federal dictation both in party action and local legislation. That the President is on ticklish ground in dealing with this shifty boss is quite evident.

President Roosevelt was successful in forcing the New York machine to renominate Governor Hughes, but the result did not measure up to expectations. It loomed up large that the chief reason why the order for Hughes' renomination was sent from Washington was the belief that Taft would probably lose the State if Hughes was turned down. Hughes ran nearly 100,000 votes behind Taft, showing that factional resentments were carried to the polls. Woodruff points to the returns as proof of his statement that the Governor was weaker than his party. But there are two ways of looking at them. Hughes undoubtedly has a strong independent following, and Bryan was exceptionally weak in New York, and was further weakened by the candidacy of Hisgen and the defection of the Hearst papers.

The Woodruff influence elected Jotham B. Aulds president of the State Senate, which precipitated a tremendous row within the party. Aulds was charged with accepting bribes by another Republican Senator, and the resulting investigation dragged forth a very dirty mess, which Governor Hughes wants entirely cleaned up. Aulds resigned as presiding officer of the Senate under fire, and the Woodruff influence promptly elected another opponent of the Governor to succeed him, despite the protests of Hughes and the urgent advice of Senator Root.

Then the national administration took a hand in the game. Attorney General Wickersham, Collector Loeb and the President joined with Root and Hughes to force Woodruff to come down. It is said that Senator Root, as the authorized representative of the President, demanded of Woodruff that he resign the chairmanship of the Republican State Committee, holding a sword in one hand and the promise of a high appointment in the other. We do not believe this; but Woodruff refused to resign and his attitude toward the administration is defiant. His supporters say he has made Taft back up. We don't believe this, either.

But the situation is distinctly bad—bad because the President and the Governor are on the side of decency but have been placed in a false position in their efforts to purge the party of rascals and eliminate gross abuses in party management. The row is imperiling Republican prospects in the coming campaign.

When the inquest on the Lincoln-Roosevelt League is held the verdict of the coroner's jury will be probably be "Too much Johnson."

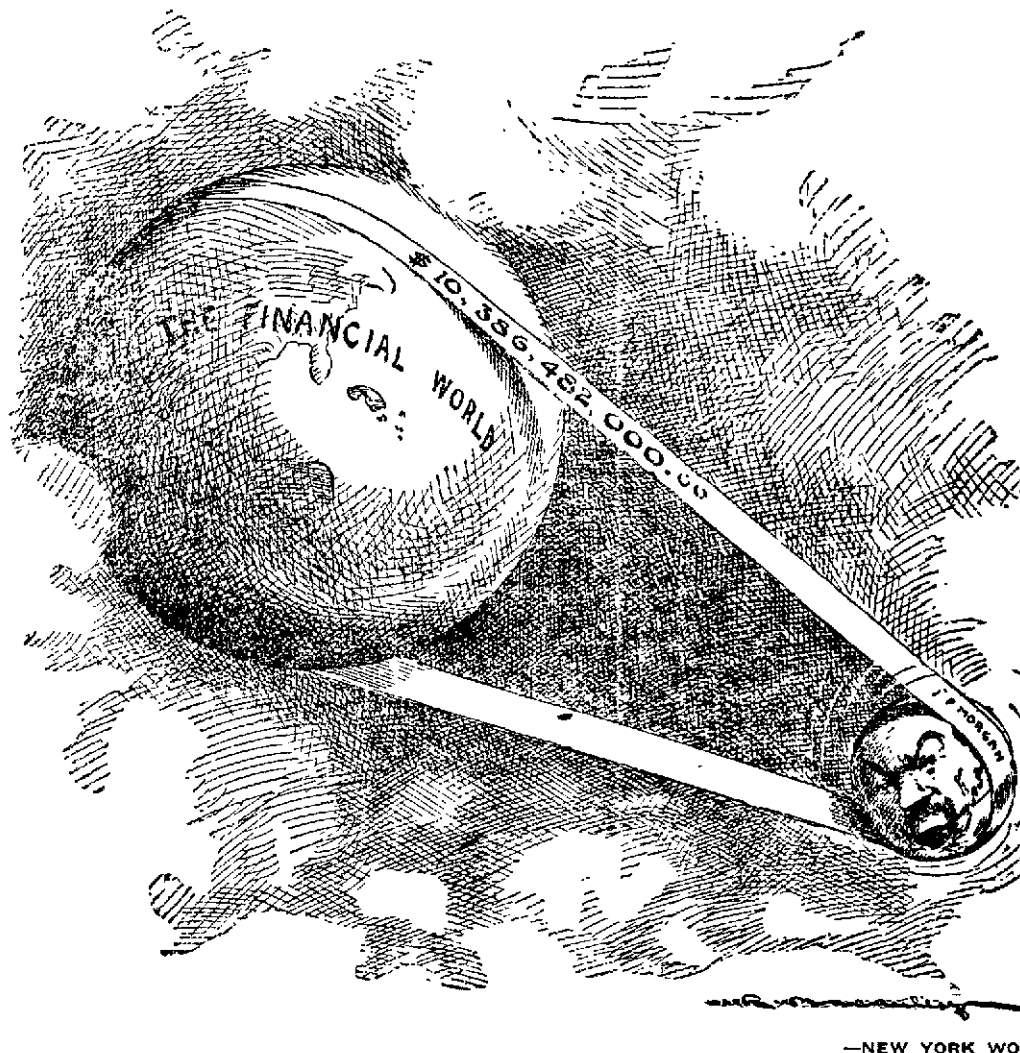

Once again there is hope for the Democracy. Bryan says he will not be again a candidate. But hold! The chance of success does not apply to California—Theodore Bell is going to run for Governor.

Former Supreme Judge John D. Works has been told gently but firmly by Chester Rowell's executive committee of which Hiram Johnson is a member that he must not be a candidate for Supreme Justice; that he must stand aside for Superior Judge Wilbur. Judge Works has been a leader in the Lincoln-Roosevelt League movement and an advocate of the free-for-all primary, but he now finds that his faction is dominated by a few self-constituted bosses and that the primary is not free for him. He has been thrown into the discard in the secret fashion that has characterized all the proceedings of the Rowell-Johnson-Lissner committee.

Broker Patten of Chicago has left the wheat pit, but the price of flour is not coming down. Perhaps he was a better guesser than a booster. At any rate the wheat market shows no sign of collapsing since he quit holding it up.

At the Los Angeles meeting with which Hiram Johnson opened his campaign Albert J. Wallace was introduced as the candidate selected by the executive committee of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League to be Johnson's running mate on the State ticket. Nobody had ever heard Wallace's name mentioned in connection with the office of Lieutenant Governor, and his nomination by the league junta came as a great surprise to the people of Los Angeles, where Wallace resides and where he is not particularly well known. Nobody elsewhere ever heard of him, as a short service in the City Council is the sum total of his record as a public man. His nomination illustrates the close corporation methods of the "insurgent" organization, and the way obscure men are suddenly thrust into political eminence. Meyer Lissner is understood to be chiefly responsible for the selection of Wallace. The average Lincoln-Roosevelt Leaguer knows as much about him as he does of the Ahkound of Swat.

One-Man Power

Vermont Is Strong for Taft

"Vermont is a loyal Taft State, and during the year that has elapsed since his inauguration the popularity of the President has in no wise diminished among Vermonters," said Colonel Charles S. Forbes, at the New Willard, Washington, D. C.

"Vermonters, as a rule," added Colonel Forbes, "do not believe in condemning a man and trying him afterward. No State in the Union is more strongly in favor of a square deal in political matters or more ready to concede the honesty of purpose of a political leader whom it trusts."

"What I have said relates particularly to the view held by Vermont Republicans of President Taft. To be more specific, I will add that the great mass of Republicans of my state take the President at his word, approve of his policies, and hope for his success in carrying them out."

"One year of an administration is too short a period to form an intelligent or just conclusion relative to its success or failure. It is not fair to President Taft to render a popular verdict of what he has accomplished in the first twelve months of his occupancy of the White House. The State press strongly commends the President's administration."

and no criticism is made of the course he has thus far pursued. "The unqualified support which the members of the Vermont delegation in Congress—Senators Dillingham and Page, and Representatives Foster and Plumley—are giving President Taft's administration, not only reflects their good judgment and wisdom, but it adequately reflects the sentiment of the State they so well represent."

"Vermont sentiment, I believe, is fairly representative of that existing in other New England States concerning President Taft and his administration."

President Taft addressed an audience of 30,000 persons last summer at Burlington during the Champlain tercentenary celebration, and made an exceedingly favorable impression upon all who heard him speak. That favorable impression then disseminated throughout the State has been gradually increased by his declarations and acts since that time, and it will require more than hasty and ill-considered criticism of incorporated personalities and bill-board headlines to convince Vermonters that Taft is not 'all right.'—Washington Post.

TAKEN FROM REAL LIFE

It was Col. Mulberry Sellers who gave currency to the conceit and enunciated the principle of "the old flag and an appropriation." He did not claim the formula as his own, however. He got it, he said, of Senator Dillworth, his patriotic file-leader and ideal of Christian statesmanship.

The original of Senator Dillworth was recognized the country over as Senator Pomeroy of Kansas, "Old Pom," as he had come to be called, whose eloquent piety and noisy patriotism, adjusting themselves with equal facility to the purloining of subsidies and the roasting of rebels, to prayer and land grants, had impressed themselves upon the satirist of the Glided Age as upon his colleagues in congress. He was a ruffian-shirled pharisee, who affected the airs of a bishop, resembled Cruikshank's pictures of Pecksniff, and united the professions of a purist to the principles and practices of a highwayman. As Fox said of Thurlow, he was bound to be a hypocrite, for it was not possible for any one to be as wise and good as he looked to be. He was brought finally, by chance, and very suddenly and unexpectedly, to complete exposure and discomfiture. The mask was torn away. Amid the ridicule and rejoicing of the multitude "Old Pom," bedraggled and dishonored, sank out of sight, never to rump again.

His fate should be a warning to those who seek by blatancy to hide corruption.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Twenty Years Ago in Oakland

Report of Sanitary Inspector Smith, concerning several large plumbing contracts, is made to the city council, and work on several houses is ordered done over again. The ponds at the corner of East Twenty-first and Eleventh streets are also protested against by the health officer on the ground that these spread zymotic disease in the neighborhood. The board of public works begins plans toward remedying the conditions in these places.

Mrs. Jane De Fremery, of this city, dies in Switzerland, leaving a legacy of $2500 to the Oakland Ladies' Relief Society, of which she was a former president. Several other bequests to charity were found in the will of the deceased.

Claiming that she was a niece of General Grant, and on a tour of the world, a woman giving her name as Isabelle Barker, and claiming to come from Aurora, Nev., is arrested by the city police at the Sixteenth street station and held over by the lunacy commission. Her arrest was due to a complaint from the railroad officials, who informed the police that the woman was acting queerly on the trains.

W. J. Schmidt, a Berkeley contractor, is examined before Judge Greene on a charge of assault preferred against him by Joseph Holland of Berkeley, who quarreled with Schmidt over a money matter. Schmidt was found guilty of the offense of assault with a deadly weapon and fined.

An Italian, giving the name of Michael Capera, is arrested on a train of freight cars on the Brooklyn tracks, and lodged in the city prison on a charge of insanity. Capera was found acting queerly about the railroad yards, and attempted to hide from the police in a car. He was held for a lunacy commission.

After having been divorced from him, Mrs. Annie Reyes, who insisted on haunting the home of her former husband, to his great disgust, is arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace and lodged in the city prison. The divorce proceedings were started by the woman herself.

The Kiss and the Law

Hygienic practice, as it follows scientific discovery, seeks to avert the enticement of ill by keeping English practice. The real formality germ out of the human body. Hence and solemnly consists in "touching" paper drinking cups upon railway the Holy Scriptures. Perhaps the cars; hence the efforts at sanitation of street cars and subways in New York, Boston, Chicago, and other centers of population; hence the periodic outcry for clean public eating places and the legislation to secure pure food. The "loving cup" has become a pleasing but conventional formality at the banquet board, instead of the feudal bowl from which knights quaffed deeply pledges of fealty, and even the common cup of communion has its substitutes in churches.

Now there is pending, as a provision of the new oath act of parliament, the formal abolition of the act of "kissing the book" by witnesses in courts of law. It would appear, however, that such legislation is in fact superfluous, unless it be for the enlightenment of the ignorant. Lord Chief Justice Alverstone has pointed out, in a recent charge to a grand jury, that to kiss the book is not an original part of taking the oath in English practice. The real formality consists in "touching" the Holy Scriptures. Perhaps the kissing originated in the desire to make sure that the book was certainly touched, since the ill-informed might cherish the notion that they kissed only the thumb when it rested on the Bible they would not be morally guilty of perjury if they should bear false witness.

The religious freedom in this country, which has involved making affirmation equivalent to oath, is undoubtedly responsible for the absence here of agitation upon this subject. But however thoroughly and advantageously this sanitary reform may be carried out and practiced in English judicial procedure, escalation on it will not be banished from courtship, there or elsewhere. The young and whole some love that laughs at locksmiths will not be denied its chaste satisfaction by mere rules of sanitation—out, in a recent charge to a grand jury, that to kiss the book is not an original part of taking the oath in English practice. # Roosevelt Visits Kerrori Battlefield

YACHT AND CAMELS BEAR PARTY TO OMDURMAN

Former President and Family
Gather Souvenirs From Scene of Slaughter.

ASTONISHES NATIVES
WITH HIS KNOWLEDGE

Visitor Expresses Regret That
He Will Be Unable to Go West.

KHARTOUM, March 16.—Yesterday President Roosevelt visited the battlefield of Kerrori, scene of the Omdurman massacre, where the British army of 13,000 men defeated the Sudanese army of 12,000 men. The slaughter of the British was enormous. The day after the battle 11,000 dead bodies were counted on the field.

Roosevelt accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel and Kermit, Stuart P. S. Inspector-General of Egypt, Major W. L. Auerper, Mrs. Auerper, and other friends, left for Omdurman on the British steamer "Hesperus" and from there on camels to the scene of the great battle of Omdurman in 1898. The camels started with the cavalry escort in front of them.

ON THE BATTLEFIELD
The first halt was made at the monument erected to the British soldiers who here received their baptism of fire. In this battle the British won a complete victory, but fell into an ambush at one of the British camps. The British and the Sudanese were seen by the plain and many were speared by the dervishes.

The guides took the party to the Donza where the British were defeated and described the position of the British and the Sudanese. Thence they went to a hill overlooking the battlefield. Stuart P. S. explained the positions and plan of attack and graphically described the scene as coming to the British on a hill. In the center of which the battle of Omdurman was fought. He pointed out the positions of the British and the Sudanese and the positions of the British and the Sudanese.

Roosevelt astonished the Inspector-General with his intimate knowledge of the history of the Omdurman battle and the military tactics employed by both the British and the Sudanese.

CIVILIZING THE SUDAN
The visit to the battlefield deeply impressed Roosevelt. He commented on the fact that only a dozen years ago Khartoum was in ruins and the place where he is staying and where Gordon was martyred was a mass of tumbling shell-pierced walls.

Khartoum is now a handsome city and the palace has been rebuilt. Roosevelt marveled at the wonderful achievement of the English in Sudan in such a short time.

Just think he observed today at Gordon College we saw the sons of the Khalifa who are students there and Slatin Pasha, the man who took their father tortured for a year and his sons now their guardian. It is wonderful.

WON'T RETURN THIS WAY
Before the visit to Omdurman Roosevelt received a representative from the Western Chambers of Commerce asking that he return by way of San Francisco. He expressed his regret that his plans necessitated attending his son's wedding rendering acceptance impossible.

He said if he could possibly arrange it he would certainly read a couple of days in Denver and Chicago attending the "Frontier Days" festival in August.

PAY SECOND VISIT
The Roosevelt family paid a second visit to Omdurman today. The town is almost opposite Khartoum and contains much of interest to the city.

The party started with an early breakfast. Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt, Kermit and Miss Ethel being accompanied by Baron Slatin and other of their friends.

The party again made the trip on the British steamer "Hesperus" and the trip was to witness the Twelfth Sudanese on parade.

Colonel Roosevelt received the first residents of Omdurman during the visit at the Khalifa's house. Following the reception the party placed the bodies of the dead and some of the bodies of the dead and some of the bodies of the dead.

WILL DINE ROOSEVELTS
ROMY, March 16.—King Victor Emmanuel will give a dinner to former President Roosevelt on the occasion of the latter's visit to this city. The guests will include Mrs. Roosevelt, Kermit and Miss Ethel the members of the American embassy, and Count Guicciardini minister of foreign affairs.

USE BIG CART
A camel corps was being used by Colonel Roosevelt and his family, who had their own cart with the ships of the desert and before leaving to travel to the desert cart. Others of their immediate party mounted horses and donkeys.

Mounted police officers accompanied the cavalcade which was headed by four members of the camel corps. Followers of the Mahdi brilliant in gold and scarlet coats and turbans and trousers snowy white. Four camel riders formed the rear guard.

As the procession moved Slatin Pasha pointed out the points of interest and related scraps of history with which each spot was associated.

PALMANTEER HOLDINGS FALL SHORT OF $200,000

Value of Estate of Deceased Bank President Given Out as $141,813.20--Made Liberal Transfers to Wife Before Death

Taking the appraised value of the estate of the late William C. Palmanter, who died in Los Angeles about a year ago of smallpox, while holding the office of president of the Central Bank of Oakland, is set forth in the inventory and appraisement just filed in the probate department of the Superior Court by C. A. Bond, J. A. Kennedy and George M. Welch, as the basis of a liberal transfer of the market value of the property to his wife and children.

Palmanter was generally reputed in local business circles to have been worth at least $250,000, and while it is true that he made liberal transfers of property and other valuable gifts to his wife and children, it is said that at the time of his death he was worth at least $250,000.

The appraised value of the estate is $141,813.20.

Palmanter's interest in the Central Bank of Oakland consisted of 114 shares of the capital stock of the institution, valued at $114,000, and at $114,000 as a matter of fact. The balance of the total appraised value of the estate represents his personal property, the balance covering an equity in six four lots in the Warner Hotel district.

BALLINGER'S POLICY AS TO PUBLIC DOMAIN

Secretary Declares: He Is Out of Sympathy With Radical Theorists.

COAL T OLAST FOR SEVEN THOUSAND YEARS

He Advises Speedy Settlement of Unoccupied Lands of the Nation.

ST. PAUL, March 16.—As ardent an advocate of wise conservation as the most radical was the way in which Secretary Ballinger of the Interior Department in a speech today before the State Conservation Convention expressed his policy in regard to the public land question. "But," he added, "it must be wise conservation to appeal to me."

Secretary Ballinger declared himself out of sympathy with those radical theorists who for the moment resources are being used without any consideration for future generations. He said that while "the doctrine of the future that the coal deposits of the United States and Alaska will be exhausted in a period of about 100 years the fact is that, according to the production of coal in the United States at the close of 1904, only 4 of 1 per cent of the original supply of coal had been exhausted, leaving as the apparent supply still available 99 5 per cent of the original supply or coal enough to last as some claim, for a period of 7000 years."

NERVOUS THEMES.
"After long indifference on the part of the people as to the public domain," he declared, "a deep concern has sprung up among the people, the result of the national estate with a wholly exaggerated notion of what should be done with it by the government. There is much talk about the conservation of our national resources and nervous theories that sound good to the ear but are impossible of practical application to existing conditions, are advanced. Between the hysteria that exists on the one side and the tendency to do nothing on the other, the other way will, it is hoped, be able to find the true policy of the government."

He expressed the opinion that "a greater obligation rests upon the states than upon the federal government to inaugurate laws to prevent waste in the utilization of national resources."

"But we must not forget," he asserted, "that we are not through with the policy of development of building up our communities and settlements even in far-off Alaska. We have not reached that period where we can say the remainder of our public lands shall be auctioned off to the highest bidder to increase the revenues of the national treasury. They must still be used as inducements to increase thrifty settlements and provide new homes to landless settlers and to promote commerce and industrial pursuits in the most remote regions of the west."

PUBLIC SETTLEMENT.
"What the public domain needs today is a speedy survey of all available areas for settlement and adequate and scientific classification of the remainder of the public lands and such legislation as will enable a determination of all private entries and rights of interest of the land of the claimant without unreasonable delay and above all, protection against the monopolization or waste of our natural resources."

Mr. Ballinger declared that the present laws and methods of disposal of deposits of coal, phosphates, oil and natural gas are utterly impractical, either from the standpoint of the locator or that of the government, and no adequate method exists.

"For controlling or supervising hydro-electric power produced from power plants installed on government water power sites. No man or set of men can comply with the present law and finance a coal mine on the public domain on 640 acres of land except under extremely favorable conditions. The absurdity of the law in itself invites fraud and indirect methods of evading its provisions. It is hoped congress will furnish the interior department with the necessary machinery to guard safely and properly the public interests in their ultimate disposition."

Wiley Would Prevent,
Not Cure, All Disease

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 16.—Asserting his belief that "one of the greatest functions of medical science is to prevent rather than to cure disease," Dr. E. W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of the chemistry of the United States Department of Agriculture, addressed a meeting of the Jackson County Medical Society here last night.

I am in favor of teaching mankind how to avoid infectious diseases," said Dr. Wiley. "This teaching he said, should begin at the start of life and should be especially applied during infancy. He characterized the subject of nutrition at this stage as of the greatest importance."

Last of 16, Victim
Of Chicago Building

CHICAGO, March 16.—Frank Simon, the last of sixteen employees in the old county building to become infected with tuberculosis, died in Denver, and the body will arrive in Chicago today.

Mr. Simon who was 40 years old, became a teller in the county treasurer's office with fifteen others. All of the tellers contracted pulmonary diseases, and one by one they have died. That their deaths were due to the same cause, and that the unsanitary conditions in the old county building were responsible for their illness, was the belief of the physicians who attended them.

West Virginians
Incline to Harmon

NEW YORK, March 16.—"We are going to swing West Virginia into the Democratic column at the next presidential election," says a statement from Governor William A. MacCordle of that State given out here today. Mr. MacCordle is in New York on a business visit.

"Everybody in West Virginia," his statement continues, "is already talking Harmon for President. The Republicans in our State have adopted a pretty drastic system of railroad and tax legislation which the Democrats think is harming the State and one of these days we expect to change it."

Specialty Made Cable.
To do this it was necessary to place a specially manufactured cable across the Golden Gate from Fort Scott to Loma Point. On account of the treacherous currents this was an extremely difficult task and required the manufacture of a special cable having a double armor consisting of two layers of steel wire, in addition to a heavy lead waterproof sheath. This cable weighs fifteen pounds to the foot and is the heaviest ever manufactured and in use.

Trading Across the Bay

—and what we have said about it for twenty-one years.

From the Oakland Tribune of June 1, 1906
Thousands Now Know What They O'erlooked for Years

NOT very long ago--about six weeks--there was a well grounded but ill-founded idea among many people that it was necessary to go to San Francisco to satisfy their wants.

The ladies, especially of Alameda county, that were devoted to the practice of crossing the bay, have made a big discovery and they are telling us of it every hour. They have learned that there is, right at home, a spring welling forth good things just as clear and satisfactory and in just as good variety as was ever to be found in the source of supply that was so far away.

These facts have been known for seventeen years to the daily crowds of satisfied shoppers who have thronged The Lace House; but now all come and they're joined by thousands from across the bay and who return equally satisfied and surprised.

Nor has the new condition worked any change in the principles upon which the H. C. Capwell Company's store has been established --- the tongues are much larger and the grooves much wider and deeper, but they dovetail equally true. Bigger stocks, a bigger army of help, bigger accommodations, greater responsibilities; but the principles of right merchandising and absolutely fair treatment, if good for ten thousand are better for a hundred thousand.

We will not pretend to say that there are not instances where "specials" or even goods sold at regular sale, are lower than may be found in the stores of this city. But we say just as emphatically that there are as many occasions, perhaps more, when "specials" and regular lines will be found in this and other Oakland stores at prices that cannot be duplicated across the bay.

What we have said persistently and with the utmost confidence for years is, that taken season by season, there is every price advantage offered to shoppers in Oakland than can be found in any store in the country.

Satisfying Showing of Spring Waists

OF the designing of new Waists there appears to be no end. We do not claim to have representation of all the styles and kinds of Waists designed or Spring, 1910, but we do assert that our buyers have taken the cream of the season's output and that what they declined were of the skim-milk variety.

Lingerie Waists
Each a model of up-to-dateness, an example of perfect workmanship, fully representative of our good values.

Tailored Waists
There is an inviting effect to these man-tailored waists that is redolent of novelty.

$1.50 Fine lawn waists with V-shaped front of heavy open embroidery and lace inserting, tucked back, sleeves and collar to match.

$2.50 Over a dozen exquisite styles showing whatever is newest in the use of embroidery, lace, medallions, and tuckings in the art of waist making.

$5.00 Stunning waists of the sheerest lawn or muslin some have the entire fronts of heavy embroidery and lace, others with lace inserting of baby Irish, every detail of studied perfection.

Black Lawn Waists
Strictly tailored black lawn waists, laid in plaits with soft collar and cuffs. Several other styles at this price.

$1.75 Black lawn waist fastening at side, entire front laid in wide and narrow plaits with wide embroidered panel in center. Other grades up to $2.50.

SPOUSE WAS CRAZY WHEN SHE WAS WED TO HIM

Wife Further Declares Abbott
Had Another Wife Living at the Time.

BOXED EARS SO AS TO BREAK THE DRUM

Jacob Kaufman's Wife Alleges
He Paid Her a Pittance to Live On.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16. — Notwithstanding that her spouse was in receipt of $500 per month, Mrs. Mary Kaufman, the wife of Jacob Kaufman, of the Kaufman Chamberlains, alleges that she was given but $20 to live on, and in a suit for divorce filed today, alleges extreme cruelty and requests substantial alimony.

She says that at times her husband wouldn't talk to her and refused to take her out, thus adding to her mental anguish.

She asks for $100 per month, and the custody of her child as well as a substantial portion of money which she claims Kaufman has deposited in seven different banks.

BOXED HER EARS.

Cruelty and inhuman treatment are also named as grounds for a separation as Mrs. C. Rosenholz, who asserts that her husband, Alfred, boxed her ears so violently as to break the eardrums. She affirms also that she instituted proceedings for a divorce in December, 1909, and procured an order restraining her husband from withdrawing $2500 he had on deposit.

She says he influenced her to withdraw this sum, and when she did so he immediately removed his money from the bank. She now asks for a divorce, and half of $500 which she claims he has concealed.

WEDDED LUNATIC.

Declaring that her husband was a lunatic when she married him, and had a wife already living from whom he had not secured a divorce, Mrs. Sue Greenleaf Abbott testified before Judge Cassingham today in a suit for an annulment instituted against John Thompson Abbott, to whom she was married March 5, 1909.

She declared that she had not learned until some time after the wedding that her spouse had another wife living and that her observations of him led her to believe that he was of unsound mind. She was granted a decree.

WHEELER BREAKS RECORDS ON TRIP

University President Rushing
Home to Keep Appointments
After Visit to Europe.

NEW YORK, March 16. — President Benjamin H. Wheeler, of the University of California, who reached New York at midnight on the Brooklyn Express, is making a record-breaking trip from Cherbourg to San Francisco. Leaving New York this afternoon, he expects to reach his destination within ten days from his date of departure from France. He has important appointments in California on March 20. If he succeeds in meeting them, he will have broken all speed records between Cherbourg and the Pacific Coast.

Seen at the Waldorf-Astoria upon his arrival, President Wheeler spoke enthusiastically of his experience in Germany and of the cordial reception accorded him by everyone from the Kaiser down. He greatly admires the Emperor and says he is a "live wire."

MAKES PROGRESS.

"It was an unalloyed pleasure from beginning to end," he said. "Germany is making the greatest progress of any European nation. The military spirit of the Germans is not altogether a war affair, in my judgment, but it certainly works wonders in the commercial development of the country."

Philadelphia Is Interested in McFadden-Sands Engagement

MISS KATHA RINE HYNSON McFADDEN, whose engagement to Harold Aymar Sands, has been announced.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15. — An announcement of no little social importance for this week is the engagement of Miss Katharine Hynson McFadden and Harold Aymar Sands, a popular member of New York's most exclusive circles.

Miss McFadden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin McFadden and was one of the fairest beauties of two years ago. Possessed of a sparkling wit, inherited from her own beloved Emerald Isle, in all probability, a dainty beauty and a charming personality she is immensely popular and the announcement that she is to be one of this season's brides is bound to prove the incentive for an endless round of pre-nuptial entertainments in her honor.

Young Sands recently fell heir to a considerable fortune. The date for the wedding has not as yet been set, but it is whispered that May is the month most favored by the little bride-to-be.

REPORT ON DEATH OF LIEUT. JANNEY

Military Investigation Into the Suicide of Army Man Completed at Manila.

MANILA, March 15. — The military investigation into the shooting of Lieutenant Clarence M. Janney of the Twelfth Infantry, who was killed by his own gun at the home of Colonel Robert F. Ames at Fort William McKinley, has been completed and the report placed in the hands of Major-General William G. Carter, commanding the Department of Luzon. The findings of the special board of inquiry were not revealed.

Mrs. Janney, wife of the lieutenant, had planned to leave for Hongkong, en route for San Francisco, but was informed that her testimony would be required at the inquest. She cancelled her passage.

new wrinkles, from the educational system in Germany, Dr. Wheeler replied:

"I went with the Minister of Finance into the district schools of Germany," he said, "and there I learned much of the governmental as well as the purely educational methods in use there."

"I saw, I saw, I saw the opportunity of reviewing things from the inside. The experience was of the greatest benefit to me. I can not say, however, that from what I saw and learned I have in mind any material departure from the system under which we are at present working in the University of California."

DEVONSHIRE SENDS M'KINERY SOUTH

Jeweler Says Clubman Bought a Diamond and Never Paid for It.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15. — Leaving in his wake a trail of debts, according to former friends, Captain "Jack" McKinley, formerly manager of the Citizens' Alliance in this city, has been dispatched by his friend, the Duke of Devonshire, to South Africa, where he is to spread the propaganda of the anti-Socialist League of Great Britain, one of the pet projects of his lordship, among the undulating veldt.

The word of the captain's sudden transfer has been received by his alleged creditors in this city who had hoped that he would remain in London long enough to be served with papers from the local courts. It is said that a letter from R. L. Radke, a jeweler here, prompted the duke to issue the commission to send the captain to Africa, where he fought in the late Boer war.

BOUGHT DIAMOND.

Radke has displayed a keen interest in the whereabouts and welfare of McKinley, for the erstwhile manager of the Citizens' Alliance purchased a cluster of diamonds from the jeweler in November of last year, promising to pay $1300 for the bauble.

There were three diamonds in the cluster — a canary, a bluish and a black stone. The captain was very profuse with his promises and agreed to pay $50 a week on the jewel. A few days after the purchase, Radke says, McKinley pledged the cluster with H. R. Heston for $500.

Still another reason is given by Radke for his unusual interest in McKinley. There are three checks in the jeweler's possession bearing the signature of J. McKinley. They total $266.55 and were drawn on the San Francisco National Bank — that is they would have been cashed, Radke says, if McKinley had been the possessor of any funds.

The checks were made in September, October and November of last year and given in payment of various small jewelry bills contracted by the captain.

BROKE UNIONS.

Captain McKinley has been in the employ of the Anti-Socialist League for several months, having been given the billet because of his work in attempting to suppress socialism in this city. When creditors fled to the hands of McKinley, when the Union League Club and several of its members dined him for small debts, he disappeared and was next heard of as a protégé of the Duke of Devonshire.

Devlin Is Waiting

Word from Capital

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15. — United States District Attorney Robert T. Devlin is waiting further information regarding the rejection of his nomination to the office he now holds for another term by the Senate Judiciary committee, before deciding whether he will go to Washington or not. "If developments require," he says, "I shall go."

The action of the Judiciary committee is likely to precipitate a bitter fight on the floor of the Senate, in the opinion of local politicians. Devlin is backed by Attorney General Wickersham and President Taft. It is understood that Senators Perkins and Flint, on whose joint recommendation Devlin's nomination was made by the President, will take a stand in the fight to turn the Senate's decision.

Cold Storage Proved

Salvation, Is Claimed

WASHINGTON, March 16. — Deft cold storage methods, James F. O. Oyster, a Washington dealer in dairy products, testified before the Senate high cost of living committee yesterday, that they kept the prices more uniform the year around. He declared that if it had not been for cold storage, eggs might have sold as high as seventy-five cents and $1 a dozen last fall. In 1902, before cold storage came into use, he said, butter sold for forty and fifty cents a pound. He denied the existence of a "cold storage trust."

Broadmoor

Every homesite in Broadmoor is 8 times the size of a city lot

On East 14th street, 29 minutes from the heart of Oakland, is Broadmoor villa, the most delightful spot in the bay district.

The broad, winding boulevards with their myriads of palms; the stately dwellings; the pretty bungalows; the warm, even temperature and beautiful surroundings makes Broadmoor the ideal place in which to bring your family and build a home.

You feel perfectly at home when you visit Broadmoor; there is something about the spot that seems to be calling you. It's a place you have often wished for—often dreamed about—but never imagined was so near Oakland.

And to know that you can purchase a large villa homesite in this beautiful place for what others charge for a small city lot is hardly believable at first.

After you have visited this beautiful property, learned the low prices and have been quoted the easy terms of payments you will understand why Broadmoor is building up so rapidly.

Broadmoor has an agreeable class of residents—every family has the same ideals; they are lovers of nature. Every home has its flowers and garden. Some have started little orchards, some have their chickens.

Every villa site in Broadmoor is 100x200 feet or over, which gives you ample room to have a large garden to supply your table with fresh, crisp vegetables.

Words can not properly portray Broadmoor in its true state; you must visit the grounds in order to appreciate its beauty.

Take the family and visit Broadmoor unattended by any salesman—see the improvements, note the 10-foot paved boulevards, see the cement sidewalks all laid—that is all we ask. You will want to live in Broadmoor if you once see it.

$1500 and upward

Electric lights, sewers and gas are installed, also our own artesian water system, which gives you pure sparkling water at half the city rate.

Every homesite is sold on easy terms, and, if you wish, we will build for you, allowing you to pay a certain amount down and a certain amount each month. Come out and see Broadmoor now. When the Southern Pacific electric trains start running these villa sites will be worth from 3 to 4 times their present price.

Take any East Fourteenth street car and get off at the entrance to Broadmoor—walk right in. You are not trespassing on any private estate.

From San Francisco take either Southern Pacific ferry and Horseshoe train to Fruitvale, where the Broadmoor train will take you directly to within a block of Broadmoor.

THOUSANDS HAVE SIGNED CONSOLIDATION PETITION

Members of Merchants' Exchange Hear
Everything Is Ready for Council to Call an Election in Oakland and Berkeley

Unless new developments occur, according to the report of A. Jonas, in charge of the Berkeley-Oakland consolidation campaign, made before the Merchants' Exchange last night, the petitions for the election will be filed with the City Council Monday afternoon and will probably be acted on at the Monday night meeting.

"We are now ready with the petitions," said Jonas last night, "having about 7000 names from Oakland and about 1800 in Berkeley, although there is talk of opposition in the latter city, this opposition is not so strong as is thought, and our committee was eminently successful in getting signatures."

"The people of Berkeley are beginning to realize that the consolidation of the two cities is simply the first move toward the city and county government, and this, according to the committee, has had its effect in making the obtaining of signatures easy. The signers are from all parts of Berkeley and Oakland and comprise some of the most prominent men in both cities."

CENSUS CHIEF ASKS AID.

In line with the enlarging of Oakland by consolidation with its neighboring cities, Merchants' Exchange considered the furthering of the city's interests by seeing that a full report of the census be taken, and will co-operate with James M. Burke, superintendent of the census here to advertise and assist the taking of the city's population.

A communication from Burke, asking the aid of the exchange and asserting that a full enumeration of Oakland's population would vastly aid the city, was read.

"Oakland must present to the world in cold figures its true population," said Burke in his communication. "And, therefore, it behooves the Merchants' Exchange to assist us in taking the census as correctly as possible. Therefore we would ask that, a few days before April 15, when the census men will begin their work, the merchants insert a line in their newspaper advertising, calling attention to the census and asking people to be sure and get on the rolls."

"The knowledge of Oakland's true population in Washington will assist the city in obtaining appropriations from the government, as harbor improvements, public buildings, and such things, which the government can give. The census, on this ground, will prove a good advertisement for Oakland."

FOLLOW SUGGESTION.

It was decided to ask merchants to insert lines in their advertising, according to the suggestion of Mr. Burke, and a committee probably will be appointed in the near future to assist Burke. The Central Labor Council of this county received a rebuff at the hands of the merchants last night when they requested the Exchange to approve advertising in a new directory, now being gotten out by the union men. The matter was brought up by a letter from the secretary of the Council, and this was opposed by Colonel Thies. Gier, who maintained this form of advertising was against exchange rules.

"We have a rule against advertising in small charity programs, school papers of certain kinds, and this project, it seems to me, is outside of our list of qualified advertising mediums," said Gier, "and on this ground I object to the proposition."

The matter was referred to a committee composed of Gier, Daniel Crowley and L. A. Davidson, who will investigate and

CONTRACTS ARE AWARDED FOR STEELWORK ON HOTEL

Structural Material Will Come From New York State, Via Panama, and Must Be on Ground Not Later Than July 1

At a meeting of the building committee of the directors of the Oakland (Bankers') hotel, consisting of E. A. Brown, chairman, H. C. Capwell and Edson F. Adams, the contract for the steel construction material was awarded to the Milliken Bros. of Staten Island, N. Y., the lowest bidders, and the papers duly signed. The contract price is $140,100.

This puts an end to all doubt and delay to the carrying out of this great enterprise which means so much to the future welfare of Oakland at large. There were present at the meeting, in addition to the members of the building committee, Walter J. Matthews, the consulting architect of the hotel company; Percy J. Walker, the contractor of the building, and C. H. Snyder, the representative of Milliken Bros. As a preliminary to the signing of the steel contract the committee approved the contract previously entered into between the directors and Percy J. Walker.

SIGNED BY WALKER.

The steel contract was signed by Percy J. Walker as the agent of the Oakland Hotel Company and by C. H. Snyder for the Milliken Bros. The bids ranged from $140,700 to $155,000. The Milliken Manufacturing Company's bid, which is a home industry, was for $150,000. While the building committee would have liked to see the contract for the steel work of the building remain at home, the handicap of $10,000 was considered to be too great to justify giving the job to a foreign manufacturer.

The drawings for the steel work were sent out today. Under the terms of the contract the steel will come here by way of the on or before July 1. It will be erected by the Milliken Bros. in two months after the material is on the ground. These contractors are responsible for the delivery, the hauling, erection and painting of the steel frame after it is in place.

From the moment the steel begins to be delivered on the ground the construction of the big building will proceed with the greatest expedition. Percy J. Walker, the contractor, has demonstrated the highest capacity as a builder, and while he has two years' time allowed him to complete the job, those who are best acquainted with his ability are confident that he will finish the big structure with a good margin to spare.

DID NOT STOP TRAFFIC.

Incidentally it may be stated that the two additional stories to the Oakland Bank of Savings building have been erected by him without a moment's interruption of street or sidewalk traffic, although traffic at the Twelfth and Broadway crossing is more congested than at any point in Oakland. And yet in the handling of the massive metal beams and other material that has gone into the building the spot car service and all other forms of traffic has been carried on without the slightest interruption. Nor was any tenant in the big building in any way inconvenienced. Mr. Walker is confident that the erection of the big hotel, once the steel construction is begun, will proceed from start to finish with the regularity of clockwork.

How absurd it is that the young man in love with a pretty girl never thinks to investigate her cooking until it is too late!

ARCHBISHOP GUEST AT BRILLIANT RECEPTION

Newman Hall Formally Opened
With Throng of Notable Educators.

BISHOP O'CONNELL TALKS ON NEED OF RELIGION

Right Rev. Riordan Surrounded by Savants and Churchmen
Is Warmly Greeted.

BERKELEY, March 16.—Newman Hall, erected for the Catholic students of the University of California by the diocese of San Francisco, was formally opened last night with a brilliant reception in honor of the Right Reverend Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco. The speaker, who received a warm reception, was surrounded by a throng of notable educators and churchmen.

Strains of a full orchestra filled the hall as the guests were welcomed to the building and presented to Archbishop Riordan, Bishop of San Francisco, auxiliary Bishop of San Francisco, the Rev. Father Searle, astronomer and now head of the Newman Club, and several Catholic divines of the bay region.

Major Beverly Hodghead, of Berkeley, California, and Father Fred A. Morris, of St. Joseph's Church, and a host of prominent Catholics from San Francisco and the bay region, were present. A large reception committee, headed by William J. Hayes, and Miss Hazel Nilling of the Newman Club, welcomed the visitors and presented them to the honored guests.

SHORT PROGRAM IN CHAPEL

The formal reception was preceded by a short program in the chapel of the Newman Club, which was held in the Newman Club. The program was made by President William J. Hayes, and addresses given by Archbishop Riordan, Bishop of San Francisco, and Father Searle. Music was provided by a full orchestra, and the program closed with a prayer by the Rev. Father Searle.

ARCHBISHOP LOVES YOUTH

"It is because I love youth so greatly that I have worked so hard to make this establishment of a worthy home for you," said Archbishop Riordan. "I love youth, I love the youth that has once mine the proof that I love them, I love them from me. I love it for its beautiful enthusiasm and for its wonderful possibilities of stamping the future of the world."

"I love you boys and girls who have been entrusted to my care. And realizing your needs, I have worked for the establishment of a worthy home for you. In this home you will have the opportunity of forming character, of learning to love, and of becoming men of privilege and in a great State. These are the three great aims of the Newman Club, and you must fulfill them to your duties as citizens."

BISHOP O'CONNELL SPEAKS

The address was greeted with long applause. Bishop D. J. O'Connell, auxiliary Bishop of San Francisco, and president of the Catholic College of America, then delivered the formal address of the evening. He spoke of the importance of religion in the development of the human mind and the development of the human soul.

THEOLOGICALS MAKE MISTAKES

"Into the realm of things spiritual science cannot go. But this realm is more vital than that of the material world. We theologians have made our mistakes. We have arrogantly made the theories of scientists and have been led astray by them. I will admit all the mistakes of the theologians are guilty in this regard."

TRIBUTE TO FATHER SEARLE

During his address, Bishop O'Connell spoke of the great work performed by Cardinal Newman at Oxford University, and compared his attainments and character with those of the Rev. Father Searle, Father of the Newman Club, and a man to whom he paid a glowing tribute.

Melrose Wants Name Restored to Postoffice

MELROSE, March 16.—A petition is being signed by residents of this place asking that the name of Melrose be restored to the local postoffice. The communication will be sent to the postmaster general at Washington, D. C., who will be requested to change the name of the postoffice of Melrose in Nevada county, and restore that name to the old section of Melrose, now a part of Oakland. It is claimed that all of the mail of the residents of this place is being sent to the northern city. The petition is being circulated by Dr. Kirby Smith and Pharmacist Paul Dubois.

Sorority Receives Friends in Honor Of Bride-to-Be

Miss Alice Southworth, who was guest of sorority sisters.

BERKELEY, March 16.—Ganme Phi Delta sorority girls entertained at their Durand avenue home yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Alice Southworth, whose engagement to Joseph Galtier Moody was recently announced. College friends of both the engaged couple were among the invited guests, several being relatives. The wedding, of which yesterday's affair was a present prelude, will be solemnized this week end in Oakland, and will be a quiet affair.

GROVE STREET IS COMPLAINT THEME

Merchants Take Up Matter of Service With the Car Company.

BERKELEY, March 16.—G. L. Schneider drew the attention of the members of the Merchants' Exchange of Berkeley at a meeting held Monday night, to the complaint of the merchants of Berkeley against the service of the car company on Grove street. He said that frequently it requires more than thirty minutes for a business man to make the trip from University and Shattuck to Wolcott street in South Berkeley, because of the delays caused in starting the cars, and from other defects in the arrangements. He suggested a great improvement might be brought about by inducing the Traction Company to run a car between University and Shattuck to Wolcott street in South Berkeley, because of the delays caused in starting the cars, and from other defects in the arrangements.

Petition to Abandon Fire District No. 4

ATAMEDA, March 16.—The petition of eighteen property owners in Fire District No. 4, asking that this locality be abandoned by the city as a fire district was discussed by the City Council last night and on motion of Councilman E. J. Probst action was postponed until the next regular meeting of the council, when the property owners will address the council.

Two Candidates Out For Constable Office

ATAMEDA, March 16.—Constable Al Kihn and former Deputy Constable George Gray are circulating their petitions for the office of constable. Both already have gained many signatures. There is just a little more than friendly rivalry between the two candidates who are running for the office.

After Suffering a Year with Raw, Watery Humor on Hands and Face—Prescriptions Did Not Do a Bit of Good—Scratched Till Blood Came and Had to Quit Work.

COMpletely CURED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I suffered with eczema for one year and had two of the best doctors in town. I tried all their medicines, but they did not help me. First of all there were small white pimples on my face and hands. I had to scratch until the blood came. Then they would puff up and water would run down my face. I was unable to sleep at night and I gave up all hope until I decided to try the Cuticura Remedies. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Lotion. I am cured. Miss Nora Shultz, 24 North Third St., Reading, Pa., Jan. 4, 1909."

ELSTON SAYS LAW TO ANNEX IS LEGAL

Attorney Disagrees With Idea of Officials on Consolidation Act.

DECLARES FIGHT MUST BE DECIDED AT POLLS

City Club Holds First Meeting to Discuss Alliance of Communities.

BERKELEY, March 16.—That City Attorney E. D. Strickland and the City Council of Berkeley are mistaken in their conclusion that the act of legislation under which annexation election may be called, is unconstitutional, was the opinion expressed by J. Arthur Elston, attorney at law, in the anti-annexation movement of this city.

Working on the idea that the annexation bill does not apply to cities with freeholder charters, the City Council has authorized the city attorney of Berkeley to fight the annexation proceedings on the courts, the suggestion for this action coming from Mayor Hodghead and a number of citizens opposed to consolidation with Oakland.

A dispute was sprung last night at the first meeting of the newly organized Berkeley City Club, when J. Arthur Elston attacked the theory of the unconstitutionality of the law, declaring that in his opinion there could be no question of the legality of the annexation proceedings. He said that the annexation of Berkeley to Oakland was a question of fact, and not of law.

In his address last night he stated that he considered annexation would be won or lost at the polls, and that the question of constitutional right would not help Berkeley to retain her identity. The City Club met at Unity hall, an audience of about 150 gathering for the first meeting. J. D. Galloway, president of the club, introduced Elston, naming his subject, "The Legal Feasibility of Consolidation."

UNION NOT MUNICIPAL

Elston reviewed the movement, and finally took up the recent point raised by the Berkeley City Council. "In municipal affairs," he said, "a city is autonomous. Especially is this so in the case of a city possessing a freeholder charter. Its charter has become a part of the State constitution, and cannot be overruled by a mere statute passed by the legislature. But this is only so far as municipal affairs are concerned."

"The union of two cities is not a municipal affair. It is a question of the municipality. The city is not autonomous, for the State takes precedence. The alliance of two cities is not within the municipal jurisdiction of either one of them, and the State has the constitutional right to pass legislation which shall govern such procedure. The act regulating annexation is then constitutional, and would, I think, be upheld without difficulty in the courts."

Powell Brothers Get Walk Contract

ATAMEDA, March 16.—Powell Bros. were awarded the contract to install a sidewalk on the west side of Eighth street by the City Council last night. Bids for the work were submitted by Powell Bros. and Hutchinson Company. The former contracts to do the work at $1,100, and the latter at $1,200. The City Council awarded the contract to Powell Bros. on a bid of 9 1/2 cents.

The Rev. Father Voss said the mass, which was followed by interment in Holy Cross cemetery at San Mateo.

The death of McStay marks the passing of the oldest marine engineer in the employ of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. He had spent thirty-five years of his life in the engine room of ocean liners. He only retired from active service a year or two ago, and since that time his health had never been so robust.

He came to the Pacific coast on the historic liner City of Peking in 1875, and the following year was assigned to the liner City of Tokio.

He was a native of New York City and 59 years of age. He is survived by a widow and a son, William McStay.

Members of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Union of which the deceased was a member attended his funeral this morning.

SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE ORDERED VACCINATED

Given Ten Days to Comply
With Law by Alameda
Board of Education.

BOARD DISCUSSES MANY MATTERS AT SESSION

District Attorney Says That Competition Is Necessary.

ATAMEDA, March 16.—Every child attending the local public schools will have to be vaccinated within ten days. This was the ruling made by the Board of Education at its meeting last night, when a report was read from District Attorney W. H. Donahue stating that the enforcement of the vaccination law was compulsory.

All children not vaccinated within ten days will be excluded from the privileges of the public schools. As it was expected that the last legislature would repeal the compulsory vaccination law, the local board of education has not enforced it for about three years.

It is thought that the enforcement of the law will result in a strong protest from parents, many of whom are known to oppose vaccination.

District Attorney Donahue rendered an opinion last night that a competition of architects' plans for any public building was absolutely necessary, according to State law. The Board of Education wants to build an addition of four rooms to the Wilson school in the east end and architects stated that competition was unnecessary.

The district attorney stated that a secret competition is legal. The Board of Education will ask for unnamed plans and will select the most desirable for the two contemplated school buildings for Alameda without a knowledge of the name of the architect drawing the designs.

Although the board wanted to award first, second and third prizes in order to encourage the architects to compete, it was stated by Donahue that this plan was illegal.

School Director Joseph Lanktree introduced a resolution naming the new school to be built at Eighth street and Santa Clara avenue Washington school, and the name was adopted without discussion.

Although the Board of Health submitted a communication to the Board of Education asking that school children remaining away from school for two consecutive days be compelled to obtain a certificate from the health board before they could return to their classes, the Board of Education decided not to put the law into execution, arguing that it was necessary to remove away from school for two days when illness was not the cause of such absence.

It was decided to order the sidewalk at the Longfellow school in order to make it symmetrical with a railroad curve in front of the school building, which is to be replaced by a modern school house. The building committee, composed of School Directors Gavin Aitchison, J. R. Lanktree and Will C. Wood, superintendent of schools, made these suggestions to the board last night.

Berkeley Seniors Compose Musical Comedy for Class

JOHN D. HARTIGAN, who has composed music for senior extravaganza.

BERKELEY, March 16.—"The Chasers," a comedy by Nat Schulowitz and J. D. Hartigan, has been chosen as the senior extravaganza from the four manuscripts submitted.

The libretto was written by the former, while all the music throughout the play was composed by the latter. The numerous lyrics in the farce are the joint work of the two authors. This is the first time the music for the extravaganza has been composed by a college student here.

J. D. Hartigan has been connected with college activities ever since his entrance in college. He has occupied a conspicuous part in dramatics, being included in the casts of "The Gondoliers," "Ermine" and "Nero." He was in full charge of the football show given last fall after the big game. He was the composer of last year's new song, "Far From Over the Eastern Hills," and was elected varsity football leader for the college year of 1909.

Hartigan is also a member of the Golden Bear Senior Honor Society and of Phi Delta Theta.

Nat Schulowitz is also a thespian of note in college circles, having taken a prominent part in "The House of Rimon," "The Stubbness of Geraldine," and the 1910 Junior Farce. He was a co-author of the latter and of the recent football farce. Schulowitz is president of the English club and a member of the Golden Bear.

"The Chasers" gives a splendid opportunity for extensive setting and elaborate costumes. There will be a series of fancy dances and dances such as Japanese, Dutch and Spanish choruses.

CHARTER DAY BANQUET

BERKELEY, March 16.—Secretary E. L. Oliver '06 of the University of California Club of Los Angeles, states that the annual Charter Day banquet will be held at the Hotel California on the 25th of March. This will be the regular Charter Day meeting of the club, but this year the banquet will be more elaborately observed than in the past.

Foley's Kidney Pills

What They Will Do for Men and Women in Failing Health

The kidneys are the strainers of the blood. Diseased kidneys fail to eliminate the poisonous waste matter as it passes through them, and it re-enters the circulation, and upsets the whole system. It is an insidious trouble, as the change is gradual at first, but if neglected, it is likely to make rapid progress.

Headache, backache, "specks" before the eyes, irregular heart action, exhaustion, rheumatism and urinary irregularities are all signs of trouble that must not be disregarded. Foley's Kidney Pills strengthen the kidneys, and correct irregularities. They are healing and antiseptic, and assist nature to restore your health. They will purify your blood, and restore lost vitality and vigor. Commence taking them today, and you will feel better in a very short time.

Foley's Kidney Pills do not contain any harmful drugs and will cure kidney and bladder disorders that have refused to yield to other treatment, and if taken in time will prevent the development of Bright's Disease or Diabetes. ## NOY WANTS METERS PLACED ON FIRE HYDRANTS

Alameda's Mayor Believes It Would Effect Saving Over the Flat Rate.

COUNCIL OPPOSES RAISE IN SCHEDULE

Peoples Company Is Urged to Increase Size of Its Mains.

ALAMEDA, March 16.—The City Council went on record last night as opposed to the proposed action of the Peoples Water Company to increase the rate on hydrants in the city from $1 to $2.60. Mayor W. H. Noy suggested that the water company be asked to place meters on the water hydrants and state that it would be a saving to the city of about $700 a month if meters were installed.

Council President E. J. Bullock, chairman of the finance committee, held a conference with President F. A. Leach of the Peoples Water Company yesterday with the result that promises were made to install four-inch mains in Fountain street from Earlhart avenue to Madison street, and running thence easterly through the latter to Post street, replacing the two-inch pipe now laid in those streets; to lay a six-inch main from the corner of High street and Earlhart avenue, running along High street to San Jose avenue and to run a four-inch main in San Jose avenue running through to Post street.

Councilman Bullock stated that there were many two-inch mains on the cross streets in the city, but that the company was not ready to remove all of these at the present time.

The company agreed to establish fire plugs at the following corners: Earlhart avenue and High street; Fountain street and High street; San Jose avenue and High street; Post and Madison streets.

Certain requests made by Chief F. K. Knauth of the fire department, among them the laying of four-inch mains on Regent street and on Central avenue, between Sherman and Eighth streets were under consideration.

Considerable protest was voiced by the council in regard to the proposed rate on water hydrants and Councilman Bullock stated that it was his intention not to fix the water rates until the Peoples Water Company had signed an agreement not to increase the rates on hydrants and had made the promised improvements in the city.

LESS THAN BERKELEY

The fact that the city of Berkeley is only paying $1.50 a month for its fire plugs was cited as a reason for combating the proposed increase in rate in this city, which is smaller in size and population than the college town.

The property owners on the marsh are being rounded up by Councilman Bullock, who is trying to ascertain whether they will still stand by the expense of installing an 8-inch main on Webster street to afford fire protection to the factories there.

PUPILS IN DANGER AT DEATH CURVE

Councilman Asks the Southern Pacific to Widen Street at Alameda Crossing.

ALAMEDA, March 16.—A "death curve" has been discovered by Councilman Fred L. Krumb at Fifth street and Lincoln avenue, and the City Council was asked to take action on the matter last night.

Krumb stated that he had written to Superintendent Guppy of the Southern Pacific Company in regard to the alleged dangerous curve asking that the street be widened between the sidewalk and the tracks.

Krumb pointed out that the Longfellow school was exposed to the danger of children going to and from school were in danger of an accident.

He also averred that the narrow road was impassable for wagons. The council delayed action, awaiting Superintendent Guppy's reply in regard to widening the street.

Hayward Prepares For Lively Election

HAYWARD, March 16.—The trustees of this place will meet tonight to issue the election proclamation. A large number of candidates are said to be in the field for the various offices and the election is expected to be hotly contested. Proposals for fire hose and other materials that have been advertised for, will also be received.

Following the meeting a mass meeting will be called by Mayor Charles Heier to consider the question of giving a Fourth of July celebration on this year. The residents are in doubt whether to change the original plan and give an apricot carnival or to cooperate with San Leandro in the cherry carnival.

Dancing Will Follow Banquet of Pythians

BERKELEY, March 16.—An evening of music, speeches and a banquet, followed by dancing is the order of arrangements which the Berkeley Lodge No. 8, Knights of Pythias, and the Berkeley Tent, Ladies of the Maccabees, have planned for the entertainment of the ladies, auxiliary and friends for this evening.

A Reward of Merit

Imitation is one of the rewards of merit, the tribute that is paid by the manufacturer in a hurry to sell his products and unwilling to stand on the reputation of his own goods.

We feel complimented of course that our Ground Chocolate is so well recognized as the ideal beverage that even this name which we have used exclusively since 1875 is put on the packages containing imitations.

But this use of the name we have made popular is no compliment to you because it is done with the idea that you won't read the label and won't notice that you are being offered an imitation, pretended to be manufactured by men who have no chocolate factory and do not manufacture the goods they offer you.

Insist on Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate --the original--the genuine.

Citrus Freight Case Set for March 23

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—The citrus fruit freight rate case has been set for a hearing in Los Angeles on March 23, by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Virtually every railroad and other common carrier in the country is made a party to the action, the list of defendants filling more than six closely printed pages of the petition filed with the commission.

The citrus fruit complaint grew out of the attempt of the railroads to increase the freight rate on lemons last autumn, following the increase in the tariff by Congress.

Lumber Steamers Dock at Wharves

The steamer Northland, from Astoria and Portland, with a cargo of 50,000 feet of lumber, is at the Adams wharf. Steamer Daisy, from Willapa Harbor, arrived at the wharves of the Oakland Dock and Warehouse Company late yesterday afternoon, with a load of 105,000 feet of lumber for the Oakland Box Factory.

The steamer J. Marboffer is at the wharf of the Oakland Dock and Warehouse Company from Astoria, with a cargo of 100,000 feet of lumber for Bettie Bros. of San Francisco.

Laymen's Conclave Ends Its Sessions

FRESNO, March 16.—The San Joaquin Valley convention of the Laymen's Missionary Movement held in this city came to an end last evening with addresses by J. C. Campbell White and Bishop Wm. M. Bell. The delegates had lunch on served to them yesterday at the local headquarters of the Y. W. C. A.

During the afternoon session Dr. J. L. Dearing of Japan spoke on "Prayer and Missions." Rev. P. E. Hagin made an address and "Missions and Steamships." A. J. Campbell White addressed the gathering on the advance of missionary work.

Newspaper Men Find Japan Is Friendly

TOKIO, March 16.—At a general meeting of the International Press Association, Japanese representatives of American and European newspapers being present, resolutions were unanimously adopted that owing to the persistent reports abroad concerning the attitude of Japan, the correspondents express themselves as wholly unable to discover any basis in circumstances for the sentiment warranting disseminating reports.

Slayer Prefers Death To Capture by Posse

MUSKOGEE, Okla., March 16.—Preferring death at his own hands to capture by the posse that surrounded him, Billie Beazler, living near here, last night blew off the top of his head with a shotgun.

Beazler killed Harvey Shears, a neighbor, following a quarrel over a line fence, yesterday afternoon. He fled to the Green leaf mountains, where he was surrounded by the posse.

OVERLAND ROUTE NEAR COMPLETION

President of Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Inspects the New Road.

SEATTLE, March 16.—A. J. Earling, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway system, of which the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound, controlling the lines from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast, as a subsidiary corporation, arrived in Seattle last night on a trip of inspection. Accompanying Mr. Earling are Percy A. Rockefeller, a nephew of John D. Rockefeller; P. W. Allen of St. Louis and Stanley Field of Chicago.

"We made the trip in easy stages by daylight," said Mr. Earling, "and I found that the line was fast assuming excellent condition for the traffic it will presently bear. While the extremely severe winter just closed has left its marks on practically all the railroads, the abnormal fall of snow will contribute a great benefit to the agricultural sections. We do not believe that there will be further serious interruption of traffic."

LABOR LABEL NOT ON 'WETS' BUTTON

Chicago Saloonmen Are Confronted by the Wrath of Unions.

CHICAGO, March 16.—Labor unionism was injected into the "wet or dry" campaign yesterday when the local option committee issued circulars charging that the official button of the "wets" bearing the American flag and the inscription "Our Country, Liberty and Independence," does not meet the requirements of the Chicago Federation of Labor with regard to union labels. Attention is called to the fact that the "dry" button otherwise an exact duplicate of the "wet" emblem, has the approval of the labor men.

"Safe, But Married," Cuban Finds Lost Son

NEW YORK, March 16.—The anxiety of General Jose Montenegro, commander-in-chief of the rural guards of the Cuba Republic, over the whereabouts of his own son Humbert, was relieved today when he receives a cable dispatch from the Cuban consul-general here, telling him that his son is "safe," but married.

Young Montenegro has been a student at the Polytechnic Institute, at Troy, N. Y., for three years. He was to have graduated this year. A few weeks ago, he ceased writing home and inquiry by his father disclosed that he had left school in January.

Of Our 400 Brands of Tomatoes Del Monte is the Best Value

We are the world's largest canners of Tomatoes. This year we put up more than a million bushels. These were of varying grades and packed under 400 different labels. Some were for dealers who own their own brands. Many belong to us. But our choice brand, the one under which we pack the selected Tomatoes, using only those that are large, vine ripened and firm is Del Monte. Some few dealers have us put up for them a few of the Del Monte quality. A can of Del Monte Tomatoes is principally solid tomato meat. We drain off all extra water. Most of our other brands, those that must sell on the cry of cheapness, are not so carefully packed and contain a great deal more water.

Del Monte

Canned Fruits and Vegetables Packed Where They Ripen The Day They're Picked

You will always be safe if you insist on Del Monte. While we probably put up whatever brand is offered you, you will not be sure of getting our choice unless it is Del Monte.

Del Monte carries our name and guarantee. Most dealers can supply you. The price is 12 1/2 cents a can everywhere.

The Choice of all Our Fruits and Vegetables is Packed Under Del Monte Brand

We put up six of every ten cans of Peaches; more Tomatoes than any other five concerns; the largest amount of Sugar Peas; and handle more than six-tenths of all the canned fruits and vegetables grown in California. More than thirty thousand people are on our pay roll during the canning season, and thousands of others contribute in various ways to the growing, canning and distribution of our products.

BOILED ALIVE IN SEETHING KETTLE

Child While Rumping Falls Into a Cauldron of Scalding Water.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 16.—Celeste Flick, four years old, met her death at her home in Fort City by trying to emulate her brother in a game of "Follow your Leader." Celeste, with a number of children, was rumping about the house when they came across a large covered kettle of hot water, from which steam was puffing out beneath the lid. Her 8-year-old brother was the "leader." He sat on the lid a moment. Then it was Celeste's turn. The lid tilted with the child and plunged her into the scalding water, inflicting wounds from which she died.

RAILWAYS FIGURE IN FORESTATION

Transportation Companies Are Urged to Keep Control of Timber Lands.

CHICAGO, March 16.—Further participation by railways in the conservation movement through the ownership and protection of forests was advocated at the eleventh annual convention of the American Railway Engineering and Maintenance of Way Association, now in session here.

President William McNab, in his annual address, said there was a question whether, in the last year, railroad construction has kept pace with the industrial advancement of the continent, and he ascribed this condition to rapid agricultural development.

Farmers of Nation To Meet at St. Louis

FRESNO, March 16.—A communication has been received in this city from National President Barrett of the Farmers' Union, calling upon the members of that organization in this state to attend a monster mass meeting to be held in St. Louis on May 31.

The statement is made in the communication that the meeting will be the largest ever held by farmers in the history of America and that some important questions are to be discussed.

Bartender Suspected Of Whybark Murder

SANTA CLARA, March 16.—Believing him to be the murderer of Night Porter George Whybark, Sheriff Langford set out a general alarm for the arrest of "Red" Walsh who, until recently, was employed about the saloon where the murder was committed.

Walsh was seen Sunday morning on the Broken road, where the trail of the murderer of Whybark was followed by the bloodhounds.

Sheriff Langford followed the footprints as far as Alviso, where he trail was lost. Word came from Alviso today that a man answering the description of Walsh entered the barn of a hotel there on the morning of the murder, gulped a glass of whiskey and hurried out. Walsh is forty years old and came to Santa Clara from San Francisco a year ago. The sheriff has scattered descriptions of the man broadcast.

THE wedding of Miss Edna Ingram, the only daughter of Mrs. William Ingram, and Dr. William Leon Channell, son of Dr. and Mrs. Channell, was solemnized at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Trinity Episcopal church, Rev. Clifton Maceo officiating.

The ceremony was the impressive ring service of the Episcopal church and was impressive in its simplicity. The young couple exchanging their vows at an altar adorned save for a great cluster of Easter lilies. The bride was given into the keeping of her husband by her father. The guests included only immediate relatives of the two families and a few closest friends. Neither bride nor groom was attended.

Upon their return from their wedding journey the young couple will reside in Oakland, where Dr. Channell is established in his profession.

INTERESTING MUSICALS.

A musical of a very high order was that given last Wednesday afternoon by Miss Aurora Thompson, at her residence on Telegraph avenue.

Miss Thompson's selections were both classic and beautiful and rendered with ease and grace. She was assisted by her pupil, Miss M. A. Lucille, as vocalist, and John Coombs, violinist.

The accompanist was Miss Edith Allan, a well known pianist of acknowledged ability.

The audience was afterwards informally received, light refreshments were served and a most delightful afternoon spent. Following is the program which was rendered:

1. Zwei Rhapsodien, Op. 79..... Brahms

GIRLS' DRESS.

Tribune Pattern No. 2983

All Seams Allowed.

A simple frock for the first days of school is here portrayed, developed in dull green cashmere, attached with black. The waist portion has the fullness of the front and back distributed by a group of narrow tucks either side of the front and back, and the plaited skirt is attached to the waist under a belt of the material, trimmed with narrow black soutache braid. A wide princess panel ornaments the front from the waist to hem and the sleeves are in three-quarter length. The pattern is in five sizes—6 to 14 years. For a girl of 10 years the dress requires 5½ yards of material 24 inches wide, 5½ yards 27 inches wide, 4½ yards 30 inches wide, or 3½ yards 42 inches wide; 5½ yards of soutache braid.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

CHAUFFEUSE AND BOUDOIR ATTENDANT

Newest Fad Is to Have Motormaid--Not Much Liked by Prominent Women. Man Makes Best Pilot

WASHINGTON.—From foggy, cosmopolitan London has come a craze that has caused a ripple of comment among society folk in the national capital; but for once the fair ones of America's intellectual center refuse positively to be a party to the fad originated by their English sisters. Their mutiny will perhaps echo around the world, invade smart Paris and Berlin, and tumble again at the feet of Washington's leading women.

The trouble, or whatever you wish to call it, has arisen over a new demand that has sprung up in England for motormaid—that is, ladies' maids who can drive automobiles and at the same time perform their domestic duties, such as preparing "milk" to meet guests after a long drive in the country where capricious winds have ruthlessly blown off powder and other things of adornment so dear to the feminine heart and face.

English women who own cars have come to realize, according to cable dispatches, how useful it is to have a maid who also is a chauffeuse, for in case of a drive to a country club or to out-of-town friends the motormaid can, after piloting the auto, accompany her mistress to her room and help make her presentable, as only a good maid knows how. Again, motormaid could take out a small runabout car with the governess and children aboard while a chauffeur might be busy with a big machine.

WASHINGTON HOLDS ALOOF.

Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, wife of Senator Carter, a devotee of the automobile, did not take kindly to the new and odd craze.

"It is nothing but a beautiful dream," she said. "What on earth could a maid (some of them hardly capable of fastening a glove) do if she were caught on the road 20 miles from town and the tire would come off? She couldn't get it back on in a lifetime, and her mistress would be 'powderless' in her efforts to assist her. After they arrived at their destination the maid would be so flustered and nervous she could only cry, and again the mistress would be helpless."

"Of course," Mrs. Carter continued. "If I could employ a maid who could run a car in an expert manner and she could at the same time attend to my wants in the boudoir, it would be a piece of extraordinary good fortune, but they don't make women with nerves strong enough to be extended by the charming young motormaid."

Mrs. Hiram Hall, Miss Edith Deck, Miss Evelyn Adams, Miss Carmen Sutton, Miss Jessie Craig, Miss Myrtle Sims and Mrs. Frederick Snowden.

TO LEAVE APRIL 5.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith and the party which will accompany them on their extended foreign tour this summer, among whom will be Dr. Sarah I. Shuey, will leave April 5.

Arbor Villa, the handsome home of the Smiths will be closed for several months.

The party will spend a short time on the Atlantic seaboard before embarking for Europe where they will enjoy a most interesting itinerary.

WEDDING DATE SET.

The wedding of Miss Seville Hayden, the daughter of the Bruce Haydens, and Clarence Arthur Shuey, has been set for April 14.

In compliance to Miss Hayden and her fiancé Mrs. Edward Hayward, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Smith, mother of the bride, will give a large dance at the Elmer Club in East Oakland on the evening of April 1.

About 200 guests have been bidden to this affair, which promises to be one of the important events of that week of many social functions.

Mrs. J. A. Shuey will leave on the day following the wedding of her son for an eastern trip of several weeks.

MRS. WATT A HOSTESS.

Mr. Robert Watt entertained charmingly today at his home in Telegraph avenue, complimentary to Miss Grace Phillips, a charming English girl from Warwickshire, who has spent the last five months at the Watt home.

The afternoon was spent at bridge, with needlework for the guests who do not play bridge. Miss Gertrude Judd of San Francisco rendered a number of whistling solos, with piano accompaniment.

Mrs. Watt was assisted in receiving by her daughters, Mrs. C. O. G. Miller and Mrs. Donald V. Campbell, by Miss Marian Miller, her debutante granddaughter, and by Mrs. William Watt, her daughter-in-law.

The guests were: Miss Sue de Fremery, Miss Eleanor von Loben Sels, Miss Kille, Mrs. Fischer, Mrs. Wm. Pattani, Miss Margaret Herrick, Miss Lucy Herrick, Miss Annie Miller, Miss Jane Cullen, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Bernard Ransom, Miss Alice Knowles, Mrs. Henry Lord, Mrs. Michael, Miss Katherine McPherson, Mrs. Ira Bass, Miss Janet C. Haight, Mrs. C. F. Michaels.

Those who will play bridge are: Mrs. Orestes Pierce, Mrs. Mark Requa, Miss Christine Tait, Mrs. Thomas Olney, Miss Dorothy Tait, Miss Edna Orr, Miss Caro Day, Mrs. Wm. de Fremery, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Louis Ralston, Miss Jane Cullen, Mrs. Frederick Magee.

Miss Mabel E. Sturtevant of Brookfield, Mo., winner of the Braum around the world scholarship, completed the four year course at the high school in three years, graduating as valedictorian. She was also the winner of four scholarships. She is now at Kansas City University and the curator's scholarship at the University of Missouri. Miss Sturtevant taught for two years, spent two more years as cashier in a business house and then entered the University of Missouri.

MRS. WALSH ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. Maurice Walsh, one of the season's brides, entertained this afternoon, her guests being the eight members of a recently organized bridge club. Among those who accepted the hospi-

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

Miss Ethel Irving, who has made such a "hit" in the new Garrick place, "The Nature," was for some time with Mr. George Edwards in musical comedy, and tells an amusing story of her appearance in "San Toy" at St. Louis. "As the male Dudley I had to sing a few songs," she says, "and I noticed a stage hand, after night looking at me thoughtfully from the side. He came up on our last night and said, 'Good evening, Miss Irving; ever played fairly queer?' I said, 'No.' 'Why do you not try it here for Christmas?' he said. I said, 'My darling, I play queer, but I am afraid my voice is not quite up to that form.' 'All right,' he said, 'we have heard worse.' I understood, after that, why Mr. George Edwards always gave me talking songs to sing."

"What is the secret of success as a principal 'boy'?" was the question which the writer put to Miss Quentin Lighton during a recent interview at the Shakespeare Theater, Clapham, where, as Prince Charming, she is captivating everyone who sees her. "There is no secret," she replied. "You want to make the audience feel that you are enjoying yourself, and want them to do likewise. You want, metaphorically speaking, to pat them on the back and say, 'Come along, old chap; throw physic to the bew-ows, and let's forget there are such things as landlords, rate collectors, toothaches, mumps, and humps in the world.'"

Lady Ernestine Hunt, who has started a cowgirls' school near Portsmouth for the training of young women, has had an adventurous career. To a roving disposition she unites a passionate fondness for two things—horses and the sea. At twenty she took a trip around Cape Horn in a small sailing boat. Then she tried a voyage to Australia in a sailing ship, and by the time she returned could "hand, reef, or steer" as well as any sailorman. She then sat for a master mariner's certificate, which a hard-hearted authority, however, was not gallant enough to extend to her.

Lesurgnes' Widow Wants A Pension

Lesurgnes, the principal figure in the famous judicial tragedy of the Lyons mail, which has been staged the world over, left a number of relatives at the time of his execution. When his innocence was finally established, Napoleon III, in 1865, granted a pension in perpetuity to the man's legal descendants. The pension was paid by the French government until quite recently. A few days ago a Mme. Hebeigne, who is described as the sole descendant of Lesurgnes on the female side, wrote to the minister of justice in Paris insisting upon her rights to the pension. The lady, who is 60 years old, is prepared to produce the necessary proofs in order to establish her identity.

Another Beauty Who Is To Be Gould Bridesmaid

Miss Marjorie Gould of New York, whose wedding takes place in the near future to Anthony J. Drexel Jr. of Philadelphia, has picked for her bridesmaids some of the most beautiful young women in society. Miss Hope Hamilton is one of the most popular of this season's debutantes in New York.

Mrs. Tree Gives Shortest Autobiography

"This is the life of little me. I am the wife of Beethoven Tree." Thus Lady Beethoven Tree when asked to write her "life"—surely the shortest biography on record. Lady Tree is shortly to appear on the variety stage, and patrons of the music halls will then have an opportunity of seeing one of the cleverest and most distinguished actresses; for, besides her histrionic gifts, Lady Tree from an early age developed a taste for classics and mathematics. Her favorite subject was Greek, at which she was most learned, and many years ago she took part in a Greek play before an audience which included so distinguished a classical authority as the late Mr. Gladstone.

Woman Cracks Eggs On a Burglar's Skull

NEW YORK.—All members of the Burglars' Union will take notice that the tenement house at No. 56 First avenue is a good place to keep away from. And the proof of that is the experience which Joseph De Lulco, of No. 131 East Houston street, had there yesterday when he was caught rummaging in the bureau drawers in the apartments of Mrs. Francis Seigler, on the third floor of the house.

Mrs. Seigler had been out marketing. Among her purchases were a dozen eggs. When she reached home she found her door open and De Lulco at the bureau drawers. He saw her, pushed by her and started downstairs.

Mrs. Seigler grabbed an egg from the bag and laid it at him, smashing the egg on his head. She followed it by throwing half a dozen more, most of them hitting him in the face, for he had turned his head when first hit. Then she started downstairs after him. On the second step she tripped and fell, landing on De Lulco midway down the flight and knocking him down.

He scrambled from under her and made a leap over the banister rail. Just as he jumped Mrs. Seigler caught him by the foot. In a jiffy Mrs. Seigler was down the stairs and had hold of De Lulco. She reached into his pocket and took a revolver therefrom, just as Mrs. Barber Schmidt, who lives on the fourth floor, arrived with a washing stick she had been using to stir a boilerful of clothes.

At the East Fifth street station, where De Lulco was locked up on a charge of burglary, a search of his pockets brought forth some jewelry and money he had taken from the bureau drawers. The two revolvers Mrs. Seigler had taken from him belonged to her son, and had also been taken from the nursing station.

What Are the Bride's Best Aids to Make Home Happy?

It seems to be the general impression that the whole duty of keeping the home happy rests upon the wife. She is advised to smile and ever smile; to give her husband always the things he likes best to eat, and in every other way possible to keep the sun ever shining. But it is just as much the husband's part to help make the home happy as the wife's. It is just as necessary that he should be bright and cheerful and do the things essential to her happiness as it is for her to play this part. One person alone can not make the home happy if the other does not co-operate. The blithest little bride in the world can not keep the home sunny if the husband is surly, grouchy or continuously ill tempered, says Barbara Boyd in the St. Louis Times.

Most Every Woman Thinks She Is a Real Born Nurse

Every woman imagines herself a born nurse. It is not exactly her fault. The "ministering angel" conception did not originate with her. It is nevertheless the "ministering angel" theory which is the weakest point in the territorial nurses, now swarming all over the country, under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance Association.

The ministering angel fell somewhat into disrepute during the South African war. It was not exactly her fault. The angels were too numerous, and they could do no better than to go round the demand for cool heads and gentle voices were less than the supply. I am not sure, indeed, whether it was not at this time that the historic nurse was originated who woke up her patient to take a sleeping draught. Suffice it that numbers of would-be nurses who all started as Florence Nightingales returned sadly home to realize that Florence Nightingale had realized that a nurse born in England and in Germany before attempting a revolution of the nursing profession was not a very good thing. But public memory is notoriously short, and perhaps the immediate popularity of the scheme by which the pulpit descendents of our country are to be nursed back to life on the arrival of the ministering Tonton is the most suspicious point about it. Nor do I see why the thousands of idle young women in the country, who will shortly profess to set with ever limp you prefer with a hockey stick or a certain pole, should suddenly develop an immense capacity for what is notoriously a difficult and laborious profession. I doubt, indeed, whether the scheme would ever have met with any success at all if we employed Amazons instead of territorialists to protect these shores.

The Los Angeles TIMES says are still offering 3 to 1 that Sam Langford beats the champion, but the odds are not so high that it is to be held at the southern metropolis tomorrow. Flynn has not come out to fight, but he is expected to beat the colored champion by the round-round decision he won from him and the odds are not so high that it is to be held at the same opinion as those of the north; that it was a fluke win. Langford has no chance of beating him, and the odds are not so high that it is to be held at the same opinion as those of the north; that Sam has been touted as the bone-crusher, cave dweller, black demon and the like, but he is not a champion, and people have come to look upon him as an invincible fighting machine. This is the opinion of the San Francisco before returning home. Many cases can be cured in one or two visits.

No severe operation. Many cases permanently cured in one treatment. Most times are, most natural, most safe. A radical and permanent cure. I give my word and will, entice you to other medical armies and authorities that thus is no exaggeration, but a fact, I am certainly prepared to cure by experience and equipment, which are the best, to success. I have the best equipped medical office on the coast.

I invite you to come to my office. I will explain to you my treatment for Nervous Debility, Blood Poison, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney, Premature, and Men's Diseases, and give you, FREE, a physical examination if necessary, a microscopic and chemical analysis of the secretion, to determine pathological and bacteriological conditions. Every man should take advantage of this opportunity to learn his true condition. A permanent cure is what you want.

VARIICOCELE-HYDROCELE

Impels itself. I daily demonstrate that Varicocele and Hydrocele can be cured, in nearly all cases by one treatment, in such a satisfactory way that all vital parts are preserved and strengthened. Pain ceases, swelling subsides, a healthy circulation is restored, and the depressing conditions are cured or reduced the money.

NO MONEY REQUIRED TO COMMENCE TREATMENT

Many patients have no confidence in their doctor, because he demands pay before they are put being effected, and there are many who are not cured at their condition, or through unsuccessful treatment, and are skeptical and take time to cure for them and it makes no difference if I must cure for them, I accept pay for services as benefit is realized when I am satisfied the patient is cured. I demand no money. Varicocele-Spleen three and four months.

I make this statement so that you will know that you consult a Celebrated Specialist, who sees and treats his patients personally. A specialist must be a legally authorized graduate and licensed to practice medicine. I am a graduate physician and specialist. My diplomas from the most celebrated medical colleges and hospitals in the world, together with my license from the State of California, are hanging in my office, where my patients may see and examine them.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE

Dr. Palmer's written guarantee means a cure or no pay for service. I guarantee to cure certain diseases or refund every dollar you have paid nothing unless I cure your Varicocele, Hydrocele, Piles, Premature, Men's Diseases. My terms are reasonable and no more than you are able and willing to pay for benefits.

Airforce conference over the phone with Comiskey yesterday afternoon Danny Long announced that the admission price for the remainder of the season be played between Miami and White Sox will be reduced from 50 cents to 25 cents, with an additional charge of 2 cents for grand stand seats. This reduction is the result of a good business policy for both teams, as it has been demonstrated that the fans do not care to pay fifty cents for bleachers seats during the prime season. It is hoped that this concession will result in a marked increase in attendance.

Albion Rovers Will Organize an Outlaw Soccer League Here

The Albion Rovers, who have been expelled from the California Soccer Football Association on the charge of Irregularity, resolved at a meeting held Monday evening not to submit to the demands of the association.

The meeting was attended with much enthusiasm, forty-three well-known players and friends being present. The gamester was thrown down by Los Angeles association in the launching of the Bay Counties Soccer League. In explanation of their position the Rovers have issued a statement in which they state their grievances. They are to the effect that the six clubs in the California association had ignored their petition that half of its cup series should be played in Alameda county; that the Presidio Grounds Company charges an exorbitant price of $100 for each game; and that the grounds should not have a voice in the executive affairs of the association; that they are dissatisfied with the management of the association.

The association will take up the matter Saturday evening.

White Sox Catcher Undergoes Treatment To Prevent Lockjaw

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—Pilly Sullivan, the veteran catcher of the Chicago White Sox, is undergoing treatment today at a clinic here to prevent lockjaw after a rusty nail Saturday at Chutes Park and was stricken with bloodpoisoning. An operation yesterday overcame this, but there is still danger of tetanus developing. Friends of Sullivan, who became alarmed at his condition, telegraphed his wife, who was formerly a train conductor, to come at once. She is on the way here. The player's physicians say they hope to have him in condition to return on Sunday afternoon.

The Crematorium of Chicago last night won the $500 prize for first place in the five-man team event from 400 competing teams in the first annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress in Detroit. The event was finished last night.

The New York Americans have purchased Tilden Rayman Halloran from the Chicago Cubs for the California State League. He was bought by Pres. Benj. Buck Farrell on the recommendation of J. J. McGraw.

A decided novelty will be sprung at Del Monte, Saturday, when Frank Johnson, the millionaire clubman of San Rafael, will give a dinner to the guests of the hotel.
